In the 2017 Special Online Issue of Slavic Review, in the Critical Forum on Global Populisms, the article titled “Taking Far-Right Claims Seriously and Literally: Anthropology and the Study of Right-Wing Radicalism,” pp. S19–S29, by Agnieszka Pasięka, should have carried an attribution stating the following: “This project has received funding from the European Union’s Horizon 2020 research and innovation program under the Marie Skłodowska-Curie grant agreement No 656377.” The author regrets this oversight.
