Transformational Politics Section Presents Awards at 1994 Annual Meeting

The Transformational Politics Organized Section presented three awards recognizing scholarship and service at the 1994 Annual Meeting. Richard Couto, University of Richmond, received the award for the Best Book in Transformational Politics, for his work Lifting the Veil, published in 1994 by the University of Tennessee Press.

The award for Community Service of a Transformational Nature was given to John Rensenbrink of Bowdoin College and the Section's Lifetime Achievement Award was made to Betty H. Zisk of Boston University.

Aaron Wildavsky Dissertation Award of Religion and Politics Section

The Religion and Politics Organized Section has recently created the Aaron Wildavsky Dissertation Award, and seeks to endow it through contributions in Professor Wildavsky's memory. The award carries a cash prize of $250, and will be presented for the first time at the 1995 APSA Annual Meeting in Chicago. For this first award, the committee will consider any dissertations completed in the past three years in the general area of religion and politics.

Contributions should be made out to the APSA Religion and Politics Section Aaron Wildavsky Award and mailed to APSA, c/o Michael Brintnall, 1527 New Hampshire Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20036.
