ASIL Insights: Timely and balanced accounts of the international legal issues related to current events throughout the world. Recent articles discuss legal issues related to challenging China's fixed exchange rate as a subsidy in the World Trade Organization and prosecuting anyone who knowingly and intentionally attacks personnel engaged in humanitarian missions. ASIL Insights are emailed as events occur (approximately 25 times per year).

International Law In Brief: Abstracts of recently published documents in international law, including treaties and judicial decisions in areas such as international trade, human rights, and international criminal law. Recent abstracts summarize the first convention by the African Union on combating corruption and a United Nations resolution expanding the NATO-led international security force in Afghanistan to areas outside the capital city of Kabul. ILIB is emailed bi-weekly.

ASILforum discussion group: An email-based list service for the collegial exchange of views and information related to issues discussed in ASIL Insights, International Law In Brief, and the American Journal of International Law, as well as other topics of interest related to international law.
