Minorities Under Communism Nationalities as a Source of Tension Among Balkan Communist States

Robert R. King

The author explores the impact of major national minorities in southeastern Europe from 1945 to the present. Included are discussions of post-World War II conflicts over borders, methods employed to reduce the appearance of national minorities, and use of historical controversies to advance claims to adjacent territories and populations. $14.00

The Classroom and the Chancellery State Educational Reform in Russia under Count Dmitry Tolstoi

Allen Sinel

Beginning with the historical, political, biographical, and administrative contexts for Tolstoi's reforms, Mr. Sinel provides a detailed examination of Tolstoi's transformation of Russian education. The author's analysis of Tolstoi's program provides a much-needed survey of the Russian educational system and a more balanced assessment of one of tsardom's most important bureaucrats. Russian Research Center Studies, 72.
