Erratum

At the rear of this journal is a reproduction of the article entitled 'Estimation of the Contribution of Assisted and Non-Assisted Reproductive Technology Fertility Treatments to Multiple Births During the Past 30 Years in Japan: 1979–2008' by Syuichi Ooki published in Twin Research and Human Genetics Volume 14 Number 5 (October 2011).

Unfortunately due to a technical issue during production this article was not printed in its correct format.

The publisher would like to extend his apologies to Syuichi Ooki and the Societies for this error.
