LIVES of the SAINTS

ST ALBERT THE GREAT, The Saint of Scientists. 7s.6d.

The biographer is S. M. Albert, O.P., who has captured the variety of this great and learned Saint's life and set it out in a simple form so that all may read and understand.

BLESSED HENRY SUSO, The Mystic and Poet. 6s.6d.

Recounted by S.M.C., who so successfully portrayed the life of the recently canonised Margaret, Princess of Hungary (now out of print). Many of his own words are here translated.

ST DOMINIC 7s.6d.

Told by the earliest biographer and the earliest painters, and edited by Dr George Kaftal. The pictures, 40 in number, show the saint as he has appeared to many.

ST CATHERINE OF SIENA 10s.6d.

Also told by early painters and biographers and edited by Dr George Kaftal. Forty plates and long excerpts from one of the earliest lives help to convey the Saint to the reader as a real person.

JEROME SAYONAROLA 2s.0d.

is not a canonised saint, and many have regarded him as a fanatic, but Mgr John O'Connor in a brief and striking study shows him as a holy preacher and prophet of great power.
