THE JOURNAL OF THE HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Editor: GEORGE HUPPERT

Managing Editor: SCOTT HOVEY

THE JOURNAL OF THE HISTORICAL SOCIETY is different from most other journals, which cater to an audience of specialists. THE JOURNAL OF THE HISTORICAL SOCIETY does serve specialists—historians of science, of the economy, of art, diplomacy, the South, and Latin America, for instance— but the journal serves every kind of specialist, every kind of historian, and all those interested in the study of history, including those who are not professional historians. For this reason contributors are asked to present their research in such a way that readers unfamiliar with the author's specialized field will find the resulting article inviting and a pleasure to read.

THE JOURNAL OF AESTHETICS AND ART CRITICISM

Editor: SUSAN L. FEAGIN

Established in 1942 by the American Society for Aesthetics, THE JOURNAL OF AESTHETICS AND ART CRITICISM publishes current research articles, symposia, special issues, and timely book reviews in aesthetics and the arts. The term "aesthetics," in this connection, is understood to include all studies of the arts and related types of experience from a philosophic, scientific, or other theoretical standpoint. The "arts" are taken to include not only the traditional forms such as music, literature, landscape architecture, dance, painting, architecture, sculpture, and other visual arts, but also more recent additions such as photography, film, earthworks, performance and conceptual art, the crafts and decorative arts, contemporary digital innovations, and other cultural practices, including work and activities in the field of popular culture.
