* Honorary.

The object of the American Society of International Law is to foster the study of international law and to promote the establishment and maintenance of international relations on the basis of law and justice. For this purpose it cooperates with similar societies in this and other countries.

The views expressed in the articles, editorial comments, book reviews and notes, and other contributions which appear in the JOURNAL are those of the individual authors and are not to be taken as representing the views of the Board of Editors or of the American Society of International Law.

The JOURNAL is supplied to all members of the American Society of International Law without extra charge (except as indicated below). The annual subscription to non-members of the Society is five dollars per annum. Annual members and subscribers residing in foreign countries outside the domestic postal area pay one dollar extra per annum for foreign postage; Canada fifty cents extra. Single copies of the JOURNAL will be supplied at $1.50 per copy.

Applications for membership in the Society, correspondence with reference to the JOURNAL, and books for review should be sent to Pitman B. Potter, Secretary and Managing Editor, 700 Jackson Place, N. W., Washington 6, D. C.
