

Psychiatric Bulletin

The Journal of Trends in Psychiatric Practice

December 1997

Volume 21 Number 12

Editorials

- Things have to get better. D. Storer 737
Health research on the Irish in Britain: invisible and excluded.
G. Leavey, G. Clarke, M. King and R. Littlewood 739

Original papers

- Consultant psychiatrists who retired prematurely in 1995 and 1996.
R. E. Kendell and A. Pearce 741
Psychiatry and the death penalty. R. Ferris 746
Invited commentary on: Psychiatry and the death penalty. P. Hodgkinson 749
Asylum seekers: self-referrals to a large psychiatric hospital. N. Gray and E. Salib 751
Group therapy in the treatment of childhood sexual abuse. J. Boakes 754
Evaluation of a client held record introduced by a community mental health team.
A. Stafford and R. Laugharne 757
Predictors of length of stay in day hospital patients. *S. S. Shergill, I. Ebrahim and
M. Greenberg* 760
Psychotic patients and patent applications. D. V. James and P. L. Gilluley 764

Interview

- Bill Boyd. In conversation with David Tait 769

Computers in psychiatry

- Psychiatry and the WWW: some implications. C. Senior, M. L. Phillips and A. S. David 775

Letter from Vietnam

- Psychiatry in Vietnam: a personal impression. J. Wallace 779

History of psychiatry

- Greek mythology and medical and psychiatric terminology. L. Athanasiadis 781

Christmas competition

783

Correspondence

784

The College

- The Twenty-Sixth Annual Meeting, July 1997 790
Council Report 798

Obituaries

799

Miscellany

800

Forthcoming events

inside back cover