SUBMISSION OF PAPERS

Send three copies of the paper to the Program Chairman no later than November 15, 1980. While we prefer a completed paper, in its absence please send a lengthy abstract, at least five pages. After the papers are reviewed, the authors will be notified in January 1981 of the Program Committee's decision. Please attach a separate sheet indicating your name, affiliations, title of the paper and whether you would be willing to serve as a discussant or as a session chairperson.

OTHER PARTICIPANTS

Persons willing to serve as Chairpersons or Discussants should submit the same information, except item 2, and indicate your field(s) of interest.

All papers and communications pertaining to participation in the program should be sent by November 15, 1980 to:

Professor James C. Van Horne, Program Chairman
Graduate School of Business
Stanford University
Palo Alto, CA 94305

UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS
BAILEY CHAIR IN BANKING AND FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS

The University of Illinois announces a vacancy in the Bailey Chair in Banking and Financial Institutions, within the Department of Finance of the College of Commerce and Business Administration. This is a permanent position.

We seek a senior professor with a distinguished record of research and publication in the area of banking and financial institutions. The Chairholder should be an experienced teacher who is familiar with current issues relating to the money and capital markets, and financial institutions. It is desirable that the Bailey professor be well regarded in both academic and banking circles.

It is our expectation that the Chairholder would accept general responsibility

- * for the development of academic and Executive Development programs to meet the needs of graduate and undergraduate students, and industry executives;
- * for conducting and fostering research on issues of significance to the financial community;
- * for maintaining strong lines of communication with the academic and banking communities through publication, testimony before public bodies, and leadership in professional organizations.

Salary will be competitive. Appropriate research and other support funds will be provided.
