

1
(4)

A AFRICAN STUDIES NEWSLETTER

0734-700

Volume 1

September 1968

Number 4

FORWARD LOOK CONFERENCE AT NORTHWESTERN

Paula Barker, Program Coordinator at Northwestern University's Africa House, 1813 Hinman Avenue, Evanston, Illinois 60201, reports the Twentieth Anniversary Conference on "The Twenty Years in African Research" to be held at Northwestern, September 10-13, 1968.

The Conference will be built primarily around the work of the 79 Ph.D's of the Program of African Studies, more than half of whom will attend.

The following is a list of the papers being prepared for specialist sessions of the conference.

- Dr. Robert Armstrong - The Arts in Human Culture: Their Significance and Their Study.
- Dr. Daniel Crowley - Traditional and Contemporary Art.
- Dr. Vernon Dorjahn - Demography and Family Planning in Africa.
- Dr. James Fernandez - Religious Acculturation and Pan-Ethnic Religion in Africa.
- Dr. Peter Gould - Regional Planning. Professors Joseph Greenberg and J. Berry - Dialogue on Sociolinguistics.
- Dr. Peter Hammond - Afro-Indians and Afro-Asians Cultural Contacts between Africa and the Peoples of Asia and Aboriginal America.
- Dr. Isaria Kimambo - Historical Research in Tanzania.
- Dr. Ali Mazrui - African Nationalism. A Reassessment.
- Professor K. Wachsmann - Ethno-

(continued on Page 18)

1969 A.S.A. JOINT MEETINGS IN MONTREAL

Crawford Young and Bernard Charles have been designated as program co-chairmen for the 1969 Joint Meetings of the African Studies Association and the Canadian Committee on African Studies in Montreal, 16-18 October 1969. Suggestions for papers and panels will be welcomed by the co-chairmen. The 1969 meetings will be bilingual; papers may be delivered in either English or French. Inquiries concerning the Program should be sent to: Professor Crawford Young, Department of Political Science, North Hall, University of Wisconsin, Madison, Wisconsin, 53706, and Professor Bernard Charles, Program of African Studies, University of Montreal, Montreal, Quebec, Canada.

HAVE YOU MAILED YOUR ADVANCE REGISTRATION FOR THE 1968 ANNUAL A.S.A. MEETING? OCTOBER 16-19 LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA.

AFRICA UNDERGRADUATE CONFERENCE IN ATLANTA, DEC. 6-7, 1968.

A Conference on African and African-American Studies in the Undergraduate College will be held under the auspices of Atlanta University and affiliated colleges. Colleges having or contemplating courses or programs in these areas are invited to contribute to the expenses of the Conference by becoming sponsoring institutions ($100. for institutions having fewer than 1000 undergraduates; $200. for those having more than 1000).

(Continued on Page 20)