REPRODUCING RAPE

Domination through Talk in the Courtroom

Gregory M. Matoesian

Using tape recordings of actual trials, Matoesian looks at the social construction of rape trials and at how a woman's experience of violation can be transformed in the courtroom into an act of routine, consensual sex.

VIOLENCE AND MENTAL DISORDER

Developments in Risk Assessment

Edited by John Monahan and Henry J. Steadman

This comprehensive review of research over the past two decades offers new empirical and theoretical work on mental disorder that will pave the way for more accurate predictions of violent behavior.

Mental Health and Development*

POOR DISCIPLINE

Parole and the Social Control of the Underclass, 1890-1990

Jonathan Simon

This powerful book reveals how modern strategies of punishment—and, by all accounts, their failure—relate to political and economic transformations in society at large. Simon uses the practice of parole in California as a window to the changing historical understanding of what a corrections system does and how it works.

Paper $15.95 328 pages

THE LANGUAGE OF JUDGES

Lawrence M. Solan

In the first book to examine the linguistic analysis of law, Solan shows that judges sometimes inaccurately portray the way we use language, creating inconsistencies in their decisions and threatening the fairness of the judicial system.
