MAIMONIDES: A Guide for Today's Perplexed

Kenneth Seeskin

*"...a masterful introduction
...with clarity and thoroughness,
Seeskin guides us through Maimonides' central arguments..."*

Neil Gillman, The Jewish Theological Seminary of America

"...I wasn't sure (it) could be done...present the Rambam intelligently and yet easily, elegantly, felicitously."

Steven S. Schwarzschild

"...the most refreshing, inviting and sophisticated introduction to...Maimonides available."

Menachem Kellner,
University of Haifa

An excellent introduction to the philosophy of Maimonides as well as a superb foundation for the understanding of Jewish belief and thought. Creating a unique bridge between the medieval and the modern mind, Seeskin addresses the classic questions of Judaism in a modern context.

Kenneth Seeskin is Professor and Chair of the Department of Philosophy at Northwestern University and is Director of the Jewish Studies Program.

Jewish Personal and Social Ethics

Louis Jacobs

How does a Jew strike a harmonious balance between Jewish beliefs and the exigencies of the modern world?

Louis Jacobs offers insight and guidance leading to the discovery of workable, ethical positions in all areas of life: business, personal and the world community.

The learned observations of Louis Jacobs are tendered with respect to a changing world and diverse mores, avoiding the absolute dictates of Aristotelian/Western ethics in favor of flexible, empirical Jewish solutions.

Jewish Faith and Experience in Modern History and Ancient Times

Leo Baeck Institute New York Catalog of the Archival Collections

Edited by Fred Grubel in cooperation with Alan S. Divack, Frank Mecklenburg, Michael A. Riff, Nusi Sznajder

This catalog describes the collections of correspondence, manuscripts, etc. of the perhaps most extensive archive of German-language Jewish literature. This catalog describes the Institute's archival collections in two sections. The first section includes 284 Major Collections (each having more than 100 items) and 3825 Small Collections. It includes all acquisitions received through 1988. Indexes of subjects, names and places make this material accessible. 1990. XVI, 409 pages (Schriftenreihe wissenschaftlicher Abhandlungen des Leo Baeck Instituts 47). ISBN 3-16-145597-5 cloth. $ 108.50

Second Chance

Two Centuries of German-speaking Jews in the United Kingdom
Edited by Werner E. Mosse with Julius Carlebach, Gerhard Hirschfeld, Aubrey Newman, Arnold Paucker, Peter Pulzer

The first systematic attempt to evaluate the German-Jewish experience in Britain. Here, for the first time is a comprehensive review of a remarkable chapter in German-Jewish and English history. It covers the process of migration, including the legal and administrative problems that needed to be overcome, the patterns of settlement, the difficulties of adaptation and the two-way process of integration. 1991. XIV, 654 pages (Schriftenreihe wissenschaftlicher Abhandlungen des Leo Baeck Instituts 48). ISBN 3-16-145741-2 cloth. $ 78.00

Ernst C. Stiefel/ Frank Mecklenburg Deutsche Juristen im amerikanischen Exil (1933-1950)

The German legal profession suffered more than any other professional group from Nazi persecution. Thousands of Jewish or politically liberal minded lawyers went into teaching liberal arts and social sciences. For the first time this study investigates the painful adjustment processes of the legal profession. Finally, special attention is paid to their participation in the US war effort and their post-war involvement in the Nuremberg Trials and the rebuilding of a Democratic Germany. (Published in German.) 1991. VII, 236 pages. ISBN 3-16-145688-2 cloth. $ 78.00 (May)

The Ways of the Sages and the Way of the World

The Minor Tractates of the Babylonian Talmud: Derekh 'Eretz Rabbah, Derekh 'Eretz Zuta, Pereq ha-Shalom. Translated on the basis of the manuscripts and provided with a commentary by Marcus van Loopik

Translation and explanation of some rabbinical texts. This book shows us how religious ethics was realised by the pious men of old days. The reader of this book will enter through the gate of practical wisdom and will be confronted with a world of ethical radicalisation, which is similar to the atmosphere of the Sermon on the Mount in the New Testament.

1991. XIII, 389 pages (Texte und Studien zum Antiken Judentum 26). ISBN 3-16-145644-0 cloth. $ 114.50

Israel Shatzman The Armies of the Hasmonaeans and Herod

From Hellenistic to Roman Frameworks

This book examines the military institutions of the Hasmonaeans and Herod and suggests that under Herod Roman tactics replaced the Hellenistic methods of war that previously were applied in the Jewish army. It also examines the use of the army and fortifications to attain aims of foreign policy and to tackle problems of internal security.

1991. 380 pages (est.) and 20 pages halftones (Texte und Studien zum Antiken Judentum 25). ISBN 3-16-145617-3 cloth. $ 110.00 (est.) (June)

Michael D. Swartz Mystical Prayer in Ancient Judaism

An Analysis of Ma'aseh Merkavah

This book is a formcritical and historical analysis of Ma'aseh Merkavah, and an evaluation of the place of Ma'aseh Merkavah and the forms of religion it reflects in the history of Judaism. It is shown that Ma'aseh Merkavah evolved from a collection of prayers to be recited in community with the heavenly hosts to a prescription for the active cultivation of the individual's ascent to and vision of the upper realm. The study thus explores the relationship of mysticism and magic to prayer in Judaism of Late Antiquity and sheds light on the problem of the function of a prayer in a religious culture.

1991. 210 pages (est.) (Texte und Studien zum Antiken Judentum 28). ISBN 3-16-145679-3 cloth. $ 73.00 (est.) (August)
