The Holy Eucharist

by Rev. B. van Acken, S.J.

Father Bernhard van Acken here presents a compendium of the entire doctrine of the Holy Sacrament of the Altar. It answers all the questions pertaining to the Mysterium fidei, its teaching and practice, clearly and intelligibly. 18s. 6d.

Live in the Holy Spirit

by Rev. B. M. Hagspiel, S.V.D.

A collection of retreat-type conferences for nuns written by the well-known retreat master and author of books and pamphlets on the spiritual life. Based on Father Hagspiel's almost fifty years of priestly ministry giving retreats for clergy, religious and laity, this miscellany of his conferences and articles is intended to offer Sisters spiritual direction and guidance. 26s.

The Path of Humility

by L. Beaudenom

The merit of this work has been to point out the teachings of the masters on this delicate subject, to complete it and revive the formulas. In it, one again meets with the author's invariable characteristics: doctrinal sureness, logical order of composition, a rare analytical spirit and a remarkable conciseness of language. 21s.

HAPPINESS WITH GOD

Dom Basil Whelan, O.S.B.

Father Whelan has written a second book of conferences which has every likelihood of enjoying the same popularity as that which greeted his previous volume The Joy of Serving God, now in its fifth edition.

As the title suggests, Happiness with God demonstrates the inner joy and confidence of the Christian who lives for God, and gives valuable assistance towards the attainment of that joy. 12s. 6d.

GOD'S HIGHWAYS

An important study of the religious life

by

J. Perinelle, O.P.

Enthusiastically commended by

His Holiness Pope Pius XII

'This book is obviously going to do very well. It will draw many young souls to the religious life. It will stimulate and at the same time conduct many souls towards perfection, including those who are already professed religious.'

Cardinal Valeri

'A penetrating study of religious life . . . most suitable for public reading in a community.'
