Aging and Old Age

Richard A. Posner

“Richard Posner is the Holmes of our day, and the social and political issues associated with aging are among our most urgent questions of national policy. This book is yet another dazzling testament to the interdisciplinary range of Posner’s interests.”

—Jeffrey Rosen

The Word and the Law

Milner S. Ball

“Highly original and challenging. . . . These portraits are worth reading simply for their literary merit—to meet the vivid personalities evoked and to glimpse the dramatic landscapes in which they are found. . . . But they also provide . . . a recurring sense of joy amid what seem to be hopeless circumstances.”—Clark D. Cunningham,

Harvard Law Review

Acts of Hope

Creating Authority in Literature, Law, and Politics

James Boyd White

“A subtle and eloquent account of the ways in which texts involve their reader in the building of communities. This book compels admiration on many levels—for its valuable accounts of its many texts, for the texture of its ethical arguments, and for the lucid original contribution it makes to current debates about ‘the canon’ and the relationship between curriculum and social justice.”

MEDICAL MALPRACTICE AND THE AMERICAN JURY
Confronting the Myths about
Jury Incompetence, Deep
Pockets, and Outrageous
Damage Awards

A fresh look at a civil jury system that has been maligned as being out of touch and capricious—disposed to award exorbitant and unjustified punitive damages and awards for pain and suffering. Vidmar looks beyond the common preconceptions and finds a system that is fair, impartial, and intelligent. In an era when tort reform is high on the Congressional agenda, this new book is almost alone in voicing reason and fact.
