

JOURNAL
OF THE
INSTITUTE OF ACTUARIES
STUDENTS' SOCIETY

VOLUME IX

CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY PRESS
LONDON: BENTLEY HOUSE
AGENTS FOR CANADA, INDIA, AND PAKISTAN: MACMILLAN

1950

CONTENTS OF VOLUME IX

	PAGE
Editorial	I
British life assurance overseas. By C. D. Sharp	2
The Stock Exchange in practice. By H. G. Asbury	40
The apportionment of a trust fund by mutual consent of all the beneficiaries. By W. P. Goodchild	52
The measurement of mortality and fertility. By R. H. Daw	66
Some investment implications of changes in companies' capital and structure. By J. B. H. Pegler	81
The comparison of salary scales. By M. T. L. Bizley	105
Demography. By Elfryn Jones	121
Editorial note	155
The treatment of income tax and expenses in the analysis of surplus. By E. J. W. Dyson	156
The analysis of surplus disclosed by a bonus reserve valuation. By D. S. Rose	167
Life office valuations with reference to a reversionary bonus system. By D. H. Radley	177
Initial expense allowance in a net premium valuation. By A. S. Musk	189
On finding the rate of interest on an annuity-certain by inverse interpolation with a calculating machine. By L. R. Packer	193
On the determination of the critical duration in certain actuarial problems. By H. Nagler	199
The Business Efficiency Exhibition, 1949	207
The consulting actuary and pension funds. By R. W. Abbott	221
Expense. By W. F. Gardner	246
The examination of equity stocks. By D. Weaver	259
Priority percentages and profits tax. By G. J. Knapman	278
The Z method for the expression of multiple-life contingencies in terms of last survivor status. By S. C. Damle	286
Report and Accounts, 1948-49	208
Notes and Queries:
The accuracy of linear interpolation in compound interest tables	205
Reviews:
A history of British insurance. By Harold E. Raynes	150
Superannuation schemes. By Gordon A. Hosking and R. C. B. Lane	212
Principles of finance and investment. Vol. 1. By Lewis G. Whyte	296
From Euclid to Eddington. By Sir E. T. Whittaker	297
Correspondence:
Multiple decrement tables	77
Valuations for estate duty	78, 219
A matter of Interest	152
A proof of certain statistical distributions	215
Demography or Demology?	218
The inherent rate of natural increase	299