Publication Policy

The American Bar Foundation is an independent research institute committed to sociolegal research. Consistent with its mandate to create and disseminate knowledge about law, the legal profession, and legal institutions, Law and Social Inquiry: Journal of the American Bar Foundation invites the submission of articles that make original contributions to understanding of sociolegal processes. Law and Social Inquiry publishes both empirical and theoretical studies from a variety of disciplinary perspectives. The analyses, conclusions, and opinions are those of the authors alone.

Manuscript Evaluation: Law and Social Inquiry is a refereed journal. Manuscripts that the Editors deem appropriate for the journal are evaluated by two or more reviewers with expertise in the relevant subject matter and methodology. Manuscripts produced by ABF research fellows are evaluated by the same process as outside manuscripts and are not accorded priority in publication.

Submission of Manuscripts: Law and Social Inquiry uses the author/date citation system, as described in The Chicago Manual of Style, 14th Edition. You may obtain our style guidelines via surface mail by writing to us at: Editorial Coordinator, Law and Social Inquiry, American Bar Foundation, 750 N. Lake Shore Drive, Chicago, Illinois 60611; or from our Web site at: <http://www.journals.uchicago.edu/LSI/>. Manuscripts submitted to Law and Social Inquiry should be typed double-spaced and be accompanied by an abstract of not more than 150 words. The review process is anonymous; all identifying information should appear only on a separate cover sheet and not in the body of the manuscript.

Law and Social Inquiry does not accept multiply submitted articles. The Editors endeavor to make decisions promptly, usually about two months after submission.

Editing of Manuscripts: All manuscripts accepted for publication are edited for style by professional copy editors in consultation with the author. Copy editors do not check citations. Authors see edited manuscripts and/or proofs.

Off-Prints to Authors: Without charge, we provide authors with 25 off-prints of their articles, essays, or exchanges (but not symposia) that appear in Law and Social Inquiry. Additional off-prints may be ordered at the author's expense. Authors receive 1 copy of the issue in which their contributions appear.

Republication Rights: The Foundation normally permits authors to republish their manuscripts in books or use their manuscripts after publication, but Law and Social Inquiry has the right to first publication of edited manuscripts. The journal retains the right to republish manuscripts as reprints or as part of any reproduction of the issue or volume in which they appear, by any means, including without limit electronic means or microfilm.

Copying Beyond Fair Use: The code on the first page of a contribution in this journal indicates the copyright owner's consent that copies of the contribution may be made beyond those permitted by Sections 107 or 108 of the U.S. Copyright Law provided that copies are made only for personal or internal use, or for the personal or internal use of specific clients and provided that the copier pay the stated per-copy fee through the Copyright Clearance Center, Inc., 222 Rosewood Drive, Danvers, MA 01923. To request permission for other kinds of copying, such as copying for classroom use without charge, copying for general distribution, for advertising or promotional purposes, for creating new collective works, or for resale, kindly write to the Permissions Department, University of Chicago Press, 5801 S. Ellis Avenue, Chicago, IL 60637.

Comments and Responses: Comments on or responses to articles or review essays in the form of brief, scholarly statements will be published at the discretion of the Editors or Review Section Editor.
