

THE JOHN CARROLL PAPERS

Thomas O'Brien Hanley, S.J., editor. The papers of John Carroll (1735-1815), American patriot and first Roman Catholic bishop of the United States, a man deeply involved in the life of the new nation. "The editing of Carroll's papers is long overdue . . . will be invaluable for the scholar of American religious and social history."—America                      3 volumes $75.00

THE COMPROMISING OF THE CONSTITUTION (EARLY DEPARTURES)

Rexford G. Tugwell. "Tugwell does a brilliant job in exposing the myths and fables that have grown up about the Constitution. . . . He traces the processes by which we began to extend the Constitution without amending it or really without ever facing up to the consequences of amendment by implication, or by accretion of judicial decisions."—Carey McWilliams
$8.95

THE RADICAL CENTER

Middle Americans and the Politics of Alienation

Donald I. Warren. An in-depth analysis of working-class radicals whose frustration has exploded in anti-busing protests, textbook controversies, and other radical actions. "An excellent analysis of the 'backlash.'"—Library Journal

"This book is must reading for students of voting behavior."—Sociology              $12.95 cloth, $4.95 paper

University of Notre Dame Press

Notre Dame, Indiana 46556