

PRIZES OF THE AMERICAN SOCIETY OF CHURCH HISTORY

The Frank S. and Elizabeth D. Brewer Prize

The Brewer Prize is a subsidy of $2000 to assist the author in publishing a booklength manuscript in church history. The winning manuscript shall be published in a manner acceptable to the Society. If competing works are otherwise of equal quality, preference will be given to topics relating to the history of Congregationalism. Complete manuscripts in final form must be received by William B. Miller, Secretary, American Society of Church History, 305 East Country Club Lane, Wallingford, PA 19086, by 15 December 1986, with return postage included. The award will be announced at the spring meeting of the Society in 1987.

The Philip Schaff Prize

The Schaff Prize is an award in the amount of $1000 to be paid to the author of the best book originating in the North American scholarly community which presents original research in the history of Christianity or any period thereof. Books considered for the next award must have been published during the year 1985 or 1986. Any member of the Society may nominate titles for consideration for the Schaff Prize. Copies of books nominated do not have to be submitted. Titles nominated for consideration must be received by William B. Miller, Secretary, American Society of Church History, 305 East Country Club Lane, Wallingford, PA 19086, by 1 March 1987. The prize will be announced at the annual meeting of the Society in December 1987.

The Sidney E. Mead Prize

The Mead Prize is an award in the amount of $250 for the author of the best essay in any field of church history written by a doctoral candidate or recent recipient whose manuscript stems directly from doctoral research. The manuscript will be published in Church History. Entries of no more than twenty-five double-spaced pages, including notes, must be submitted to Richard L. Greaves, Chair, Committee on Research, American Society of Church History, c/o Department of History, Florida State University, Tallahassee, FL 32306, by 1 July 1987. The prize will be announced at the annual meeting of the Society in December 1987.

SCHOLARLY MEANS TO EVANGELICAL ENDS

The New Haven Scholars and the Transformation of Higher Learning in America, 1830-1890

LOUISE L. STEVENSON

In most accounts, the rise of modern American scholarship coincides with the birth of the modern university in the late nineteenth century. That view overlooks the major contributions of the New Haven scholars, who, between the Romantic 1830s and the 1880s, introduced German scholarship and scholarly practice to America and profoundly influenced a succeeding generation of educational pioneers. Stevenson delineates continuities that run throughout the nineteenth century to reassess its intellectual history, religious history, and the history of higher education.

The Maronites in History

Matti Moosa

This is the first complete history of this Middle Eastern religious community. Moosa begins with the early roots of the Maronite Church in fifth-century Syria and traces its development to an examination of the Maronite community's role in today's civil strife in Lebanon and the relationship with their Muslim and Druze neighbors. This is certain to become a standard work and will be of interest to all scholars of church history.
