The Journal of Modern African Studies

Editor

Paul Nugent, University of Edinburgh, UK
Leonardo A. Villalón, University of Florida, USA

The Journal of Modern African Studies offers a quarterly survey of developments in modern African politics and society. Its main emphasis is on current issues in African politics, economies, societies and international relations. It is intended not only for students and academic specialists, but also for general readers and practitioners with a concern for modern Africa, living and working both inside and outside the continent. Editorial policy avoids commitment to any political viewpoint or ideology, but aims at a fair examination of controversial issues in order to promote a deeper understanding of what is happening in Africa today. The journal also includes an invaluable book review section.

General

Articles should be no longer than 12,000 words (including footnotes). Please also provide an abstract of no more than 150 words at the beginning of the article. Use footnotes, rather than endnotes.

Spelling

Foreign words and phrases

Truly foreign words and phrases (except proper nouns) should be italicized and followed by a translation in square brackets. Please do not italicize words, phrases and abbreviations generally accepted in the English language.

Abbreviations

Do not use full stops for abbreviations or for initials within names. Article, chapter, section, ordinance, proclamation, paragraph, etc should be in full and in lower case in the text, but abbreviated in footnotes to art, chap, sec, ord, proc, para etc. Abbreviated forms used in the text must be in full in the first instance, followed by the abbreviated form/acronym in brackets. Per cent to be written in full in the text; use % in footnotes.

Punctuation

Punctuation should be “outside” quotation marks (unless the punctuation is clearly part of the quotation) and footnote cues should come after punctuation. Use “smart” double quotation marks, followed by single quotation marks within a quotation. Quotations more than five lines long in the text should be indented.
