Cambridge Yearbook of European Legal Studies

The Cambridge Yearbook of European Legal Studies (CYELS) offers authors and readers a space for sustained reflection and conversation about the challenges facing Europe and the diverse legal contexts in which those challenges are addressed. It identifies European Legal Studies as a broad field of legal enquiry encompassing not only European Union law but also the law emanating from the Council of Europe; comparative European public and private law; and national law in its interaction with European legal sources.

The Yearbook is a publication of the Centre for European Legal Studies, Faculty of Law, University of Cambridge.

Submission guidelines: Any individual interested in writing an article should contact the Editor-in-Chief, Professor Kenneth Armstrong, Faculty of Law, University of Cambridge, 10 West Road, Cambridge CB3 9DZ (kaa40@cam.ac.uk). Articles should normally be between 9,000 and 12,000 words long, including footnotes and should be submitted as an email attachment. CYELS does not publish Book Reviews. For more detailed information and style instructions see <https://www.cambridge.org/core/journals/cambridge-yearbook-of-european-legal-studies/information/instructions-contributors>.

CYELS publishes in print every December but also benefits from FirstView, a feature offered through the Cambridge Journals online platform. It allows completed pieces to be hosted online prior to their inclusion in a final print and online journal issue. This significantly reduces the lead time between submission and publication.

Subscriptions: From 2015 CYELS is available only as a subscription product rather than a standalone book. 2018 institutional subscription prices: online and print subscription: US$330 in the USA, Canada and Mexico; £206 +VAT elsewhere. Online-only subscription: US$269 in the USA, Canada and Mexico; £170 +VAT elsewhere. Print-only subscription: US$318 in the USA, Canada and Mexico; £199 elsewhere.

Personal print subscriptions for individuals can be obtained directly from Cambridge University Press direct priced at £84/$135. A discounted rate for a personal print subscription for individual members of the European Law Institute (ELI) or FIDE National Associations is also available from Cambridge University Press direct priced at £50/$80/€60.

Subscription correspondence and address changes should be sent to: Cambridge University Press, Cambridge University Press, One Liberty Plaza, New York, NY 10006, (212)337-5985, email subscriptions_newyork@cambridge.org, for customers in the USA, Canada and Mexico. Customers elsewhere should contact: Cambridge University Press, University Printing House, Shaftesbury Road, Cambridge CB2 8BS, UK, email journals@cambridge.org.

Individual articles to be purchased and rented are also available through Cambridge University Press.
