Lee Drutman is a Ph.D. candidate in political science at the University of California, Berkeley. His dissertation examines the rise of business lobbying in Washington, DC.

Graduate Students Who Attended the Annual Meeting with APSA Assistance

In an effort to increase graduate student participation at the Annual Meeting, the association awarded Advanced Graduate Student Travel Grants for the 2010 meeting in Washington, DC. Recognizing challenging economic times across academia, Cambridge University Press offered $5,000 and Pearson offered $2,000 to supplement the APSA travel grant program and support U.S. graduate students taking part in the Annual Meeting. The names and institutional affiliates of the awardees follow.
