

Polity is a professional political science journal published quarterly by The Northeastern Political Science Association. Polity is open to a wide range of domestic and international topics. Included are Articles, Book Review Essays, and Research Notes offered in a carefully designed format that features an artistic cover with every issue. Throughout its ten years of existence, Polity has actively tried to provide lively, literate, and provocative reading.

Recent contributors have included Samuel H. Beer, Hans Speier, William C. Havard, Henry Kariel, Elmer Cornwell, Jorgen Rasmussen, and Arlene W. Saxonhouse.

A sampling of subjects from recent and forthcoming issues:

Executive Reorganization and the Origins of the Managerial Presidency
Female Political Career Patterns
Political Explanations: Positivism and the New Teleology
Political Value Judgments of Children
Justice Deserted: A Critique of Rawls
Principles and Violence
Germany and the Balance of Power
Government Relations with Industry: Asia and Europe and other subjects of general interest to political scientists.

Subscription Rates

Individuals: $12.00 (including membership in the Northeastern Political Science Association for residents of the region).

Foreign: $12.50

Institutions: $15.00, Foreign $15.50

Student: U.S.A $5.00, Foreign $5.50

Mail (subscription order) to: POLITY, Thompson Hall, University of Massachusetts, Amherst, Massachusetts 01003

Name _____

Address _____

Payment enclosed, sum of: _____

Elite Images of Dutch Politics

Accommodation and Conflict

Samuel J. Eldersveld, Jan Kooiman, and Theo Van der Tak

Political Elites—they have been called “the core of modern government.” They are the civil servants who manage the national bureaucracy, the party leaders who control the legislative process. Their attitudes and behaviors—and their relationship with each other—can determine the direction of public policy and the degree of public support for government.

$15.00

The University of Michigan Press

Dept. IS P.O. Box 1104 Ann Arbor MI 48106

DEFENSE POLITICS OF THE ATLANTIC ALLIANCE

edited by Edwin H. Fedder, University of Missouri

Distinguished by its emphasis on the rational perspectives and policies of the key Western alliance partners, with implications for their roles in common defense. Published in cooperation with The Committee on Atlantic Studies.

208 pp., 1980, $21.95, ISBN 0-03-058018-8

NON-GOVERNMENTAL ORGANIZATIONS AT THE U.N.

Pei-Heng Chiang, Castleton State College

Examines the political identity, role and function of non-governmental organizations at the U.S.: what they are, have been, and how they may be changing.

ca. 288 pp., June 1981, ca. $24.95, ISBN 0-03-058632-1

REFUGEES

The Humanitarian Dilemma

William H. Lewis, George Washington University

A framework for evaluation of our public policies, programs and administration of refugee aid activities.

ca. 200 pp., May 1981, ca. $19.95, ISBN 0-03-058314-4

Please send me the book checked above. Invoices will include shipping, handling, and sales tax. All prices subject to change without notice.

Name _____

Institution _____

Address _____

City, State, Zip _____

PRAEGER PUBLISHERS
521 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York 10175

JOHAN GALTUNG A Bibliography of his Scholarly and Popular Writings 1951–80

Johan Galtung is Norway's most cited social scientist and one of the founding fathers of peace research. He has also contributed materially to a number of other disciplines and cross-disciplinary fields such as methodology, criminology, media research, international relations, and macro-history.

While published on the occasion of his 50th birthday, this book is not a conventional Festschrift but rather a tool to help establish bibliographic control of Galtungism up to 1980. All the 676 publications listed in the bibliographic section have been coded with descriptors, and there are title, name, and descriptor indices.

286 p. Price: Norw. kr. 125 or US $25. Postage free if prepaid. 40% discount on orders from book-stores and for 5 or more copies

Order from PRIO, Rådhusgata 4, Oslo 1, Norway.

WORLD POLITICS

A Quarterly Journal of International Relations

In the last survey conducted by the American Political Science Association, a nationwide sampling of political scientists rated WORLD POLITICS "first for quality." Celebrating its 33rd year of publication, WORLD POLITICS continues to offer research articles on the frontiers of scholarship—in history, geography, economics, international relations, military affairs, foreign policy, sociology, and political theory.

Articles from recent issues include:

Political Socialization and Moral Development by Richard W. Wilson

Collective Action and the Fallacy of the Liberal Fallacy by Richard Kimber

Prefects as Senators: Soviet Regional Politicians Look to Foreign Policy by Peter Hauslohner

Conventional Arms in Soviet Foreign Policy by David D. Finley

Enter your Subscription now.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES

U.S. and Canada

Individuals:	Institutions:
$12.50/year	$22.50/year
$22.00/two years	$41.50/two years
$31.00/three years	$55.00/three years

Single copies: $6.50

Foreign

Individuals	Institutions
$15.50/year	$28.25/year
$27.25/two years	$52.00/two years
$38.75/three years	$68.75/three years

Single copies: $8.25

Handling charge on foreign orders: $2.25 per year.

Name _____

Address _____

WORLD POLITICS Subscriptions, Princeton University Press, Princeton, N.J. 08540

Sponsored by the Center of International Studies, Princeton University

Luso-Brazilian Review

The Luso-Brazilian Review, published twice each year, is concerned with all aspects of Portuguese and Brazilian culture. Book reviews, research in progress, and notices of new publications in the field are published regularly. Most articles are in English with some contributions in Portuguese and Spanish and occasionally other Western languages.

Editors: Mary L. Daniel
Thomas E. Skidmore

A new editorial direction is encouraging active participation in the journal by scholars concerned with geography, art history, political science, economics, as well as language and literature in the Portuguese-speaking regions, to give an extensive overview to both Portuguese and Brazilian society and the settlements in Africa and North America.

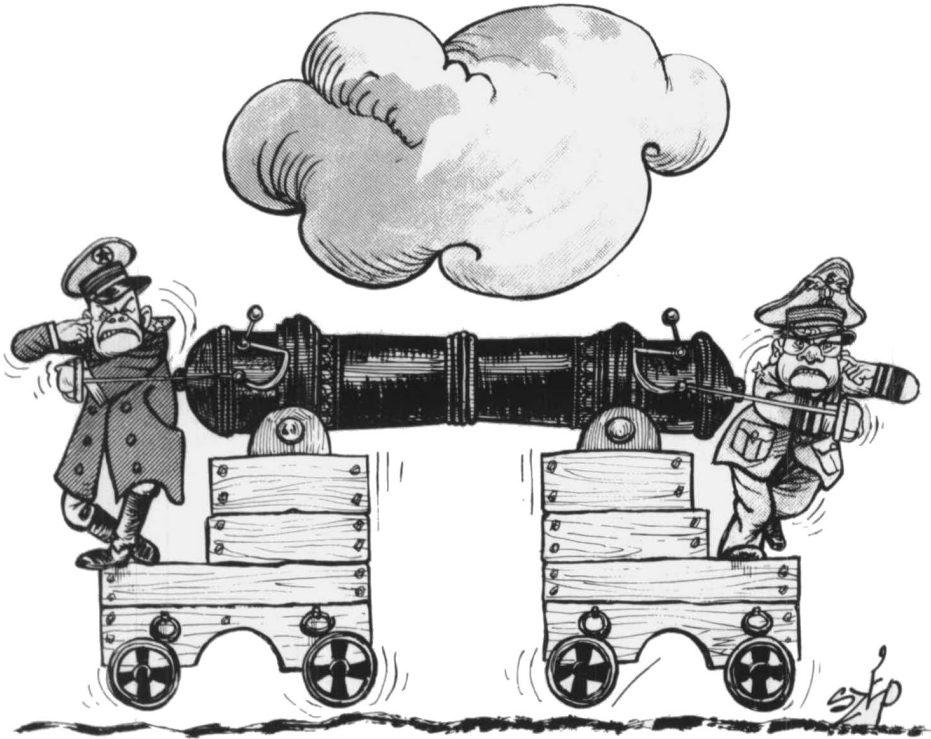

Recent issues focus on "Camões and His Centuries" and Social Mobility, Employment, and Income Distribution in Brazil.

Subscribe now or recommend a subscription to your library. The Luso-Brazilian Review needs your support.

Rates:
$28/year, Institutions
$13/year, Individuals (must prepay)
Foreign Postage: $3/year
Please remit in U.S. Funds.

Send subscriptions to:
Journal Division
University of Wisconsin Press
114 North Murray Street
Madison, WI 53715 U.S.A.

WE LIVE IN EXPLOSIVE TIMES

... and International Security is the quarterly journal for these times. International Security offers the unique combination of policy relevance and scholarship in analyzing the challenges of war and peace, third world development and instability, economic conflict and resource competition. Its essays, debates, book reviews, and commentaries present new facts, authoritative sources, thoughtful discussions, and provocative conclusions on the broad range of issues that affect the security of this explosive world.

Now in its fifth year of publication by Harvard University and the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, International Security is an important forum for the insights and prescriptions of scholars, scientists, statesmen, journalists, and younger analysts of foreign affairs.

International Security. Let it inform you and your opinions.

Yes! _____ Please enter my subscription to IS, beginning with Spring 1981. I have enclosed $15.00 ($25.00 for airmail outside the U.S.).

International Security
The MIT Press Journals
28 Carleton Street
Cambridge, MA 02142

Name _____
Address _____
City _____ State _____ Zip _____

NEW FROM BUCKNELL UNIVERSITY PRESS

Collective Insecurity

The United States and the League of Nations During the Early Thirties

GARY B. OSTROWER

Focusing on the Manchurian Crisis when the League first tested the collective security idea, the author discovers an international impulse neglected in standard accounts of U.S. policy during the 1930s.

"an important and well-crafted work. . .As a result of Ostrower's painstaking scholarship: . .students of American foreign policy will want to re-evaluate their understanding of this period."

Jerome Slater, SUNY Buffalo

"solidly based. . .reveals a real sophistication."

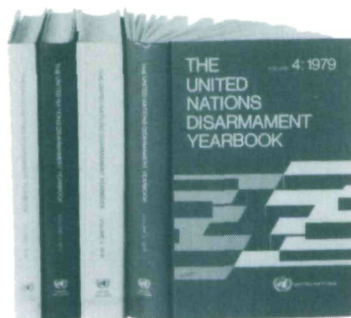

Choice Magazine

$19.50

Published by Bucknell University Press

At your bookseller, or direct from:
ASSOCIATED UNIVERSITY PRESSES
4 Cornwall Drive
East Brunswick, New Jersey 08816

Publications from the United Nations

The United Nations Disarmament Yearbook

Volume 4: 1979 Covers succinctly and with detailed reference all the deliberations, negotiations and actions related to disarmament that took place during 1979 in the United Nations, or under the auspices of the Organization, and in the Committee on Disarmament. Among the current questions in the disarmament field: non-proliferation of nuclear weapons and cessation of tests; prohibition of new weapons of mass destruction; regional approaches to disarmament; reduction of military budgets; the relationship between disarmament and development. The Appendices contain texts of resolutions passed, draft conventions under consideration and other special treaties and documents.

Volume 4: 1979	Sales No.	E.80.IX.6	Clothbound	$35.00
		E.80.IX.7	Paperbound	$28.00
Volume 3: 1978	Sales No.	E.79.IX.2	Clothbound	$30.00
		E.79.IX.3	Paperbound	$22.00
Volume 2: 1977	Sales No.	E.78.IX.4	Clothbound	$18.00
Volume 1: 1976	Sales No.	E.77.IX.2	Clothbound	$18.00

Disarmament: A Periodic Review by the United Nations

Also published in Arabic, Chinese, French, Russian and Spanish, the review summarizes current work in the Committee on Disarmament, chronicles official meetings, events and relevant policy declarations by national authorities and offers articles by various experts within and outside the United Nations framework on the disarmament process.

Volume III, No. 2, July 1980	Sales No.	E.80.IX.5	$3.50
Volume III, No. 1, May 1980	Sales No.	E.80.IX.4	$3.50

Economic and Social Consequences of the Arms Race and of Military Expenditures

Sales No. E.78.IX.1 $6.00

Sources and Effects of Ionizing Radiation

A collection and assessment of data that investigates the different types of radiation in terms of levels of risk and frequency of harmful effects, and extends from work with animals and plant material to careful study of all the available information on known radiation exposure in human populations.

Sales No. E.77.IX.1 $28.00

The United Nations and Disarmament 1970-1975

Review of the measures called for by the General Assembly for a slow-down of the arms race, both in nuclear and conventional weapons.

Sales No. E.76.IX.1 $10.00

Disarmament: Progress Towards Peace

Sales No. E.74.I.23 $2.00

Disarmament: A Select Bibliography 1973-1977

Sales No. E.78.I.13 $9.00

United Nations

Room A-3315
New York, N.Y. 10017

Publications

Palais des Nations
1211 Geneva 10, Switzerland

International Organization

Volume 35, Number 2, Spring 1981

Articles

Modeling OPEC behavior:
economic and political alternatives Theodore H. Moran

Sphere of flying:
the politics of international aviation Christer Jönsson

Power structures and regional development banks Stephen D. Krasner

The impact of food aid on world malnutrition James N. Schubert

Center-periphery interaction patterns: the case of Arab visits,
1946–1975 William R. Thompson

Review essay

The newest mercantilism David J. Sylvan

Research note

Civil servant attitudes toward the U.N. in Guatemala, Norway, and the United States Robert E. Riggs