A Journal of Interpretation

---

Winter 1991

Volume 1

Number 1

Statement of Purpose

Religion and American Culture: A Journal of Interpretation explores the interplay between religion and other spheres of American culture. The journal embraces a diversity of methodological approaches and theoretical perspectives. Although concentrated on specific topics, articles illuminate larger patterns, implications, or contexts of American life. Religion and American Culture is, thus, devoted to promoting the ongoing scholarly discussion of the nature, terms, and dynamics of religion in America.

Religion and American Culture (ISSN 1052-1151) is published bi-annually by Indiana University Press for the Center for the Study of Religion and American Culture at Indiana University-Purdue University, Indianapolis, which assumes no responsibility for opinions expressed by contributors. Subscriptions are available to institutions at $25.00 per volume and to individuals at $15.00 per volume. Surface postage for subscriptions outside the USA is $7.00 per volume. Single issues are available to institutions at $20.00 each and to individuals at $10.00 each, plus $1.25 per issue for postage. A forty percent discount is available on bulk orders for classroom use or bookstore sales.

Address all subscriptions and business correspondence to the Journals Manager, Indiana University Press, 10th and Morton Streets, Bloomington, IN 47405, or call 812-855-9449. Notice of nonreceipt of an issue must be sent within four weeks of date of receipt of subsequent issue. Please notify Indiana University Press of any change of address. The post office does not forward third class mail; issues not deliverable because of outdated addresses will not be replaced.

Address all manuscripts and editorial correspondence to Thomas J. Davis, Managing Editor, Center for the Study of Religion and American Culture, Cavanaugh Hall 344, Indiana University-Purdue University, Indianapolis, 425 University Boulevard, Indianapolis, IN 46202-5140. All manuscript submissions, four copies of each typescript, should conform to the Chicago Manual of Style. Typescripts should be 25-35 pages in length.

AMERICAN

As the official publication of the American Studies Association, the American Quarterly serves as a guide to the culture of the United States. The journal promotes a broad humanistic understanding of American culture, encourages scholars from diverse disciplines to exchange ideas on America, and examines the ways American life relates to world society. Recent issues have explored war, theory and practice of material culture, and American modernism.
