God, Jesus and Belief

The Legacy of Theism
STEWART R. SUTHERLAND

---

What way forward is there for Christian faith? To reject traditional faith wholesale is to squander a precious legacy: to defend it against the light of reason displays intellectual cowardice. Professor Sutherland here combines philosophy and theology to outline a personal creed which is both radical and revisionary. It may infuriate or inspire, but it cannot fail to be thought-provoking.

224 pages, hardback £15.00 (0 631 13548 0)
paperback £5.95 (0 631 13591 X)

The Use of the Bible in Christian Ethics

THOMAS W. OGLETREE

---

This long-awaited book seeks to establish a common ground between the Bible and current debates in ethics. Criticizing and modifying some of the more influential modern ethical theories, it moves towards a coherent and comprehensive ethical theory, and discusses selected biblical treatments of the moral life.

240 pages, £15.00 (0 631 13877 3)

Luther's Theology of the Cross

Martin Luther on Justification 1509 – 1519
ALISTER E. McGRATH

---

This book re-examines Luther's theological breakthrough in the light of late medieval thought. It demonstrates how immediately intelligible his difficulties are when approached in this manner, and documents his gradual break with the accepted theology of the day.

208 pages, £15.00 (0 631 13855 2)

The Making of a Moonie

Choice or Brainwashing?
EILEEN BARKER

---

'Having read her book, you do not have to read anything else about the Moonies.'

Anthony Burgess, Times Literary Supplement

The Moonies inspire fear and anxiety; stories of brainwashing, extraordinary rituals and phenomenal wealth abound. Eileen Barker here investigates them from the inside – she is the first non-Moonie to gain such privileged access – and gives a frank and hard-hitting account of why they join, who they are and why they act as they do.

320 pages, £12.00 (0 631 13246 5)

Strange Gifts?

A Guide to Charismatic Renewal
Edited by DAVID MARTIN and PETER MULLEN

---

The charismatic movement has created a sensation in the churches in the last fifteen years. Strange Gifts? is an examination of its nature and influence and includes contributors from the whole spectrum of opinion offering analysis and interpretation.

240 pages, hardback £15.00 (0 631 13357 7)
paperback £5.95 (0 631 13592 8)

Biblical Interpretation in Ancient Israel

Michael Fishbane

Demonstrates that the Old Testament is the repository of a rich tradition of exegesis, considerably prior to the development of biblical interpretation in early classical Judaism and in the earliest Christian communities.

£35.00, Clarendon Press, 0 19 826325 2

New in Paperback

The Existence of God

Richard Swinburne

A sequel to The Coherence of Theism.

'With this book Swinburne has made an excellent and important contribution to the philosophy of religion . . . no one interested in the philosophy of religion can afford to ignore it.' The Thomist

£6.95, Clarendon Press, 0 19 824778 8

New in Paperback

Faith and Reason

Richard Swinburne

A sequel to The Coherence of Theism and The Existence of God, completing the trilogy on the philosophy of religion.

'The task that he has set himself has been completed with immense power and elegance. Swinburne (like Hume) will surely be quoted as long as English-speaking philosophers think about the question of God.' Fergus Kerr, The Tablet

£6.50, Clarendon Press, 0 19 824725 7

From Athens to Jerusalem

The Love of Wisdom and the Love of God

Stephen R.L. Clark

An exploration of the problems posed for humane life and learning by contemporary naturalism and relativism.

' . . . attractively written, bringing a lively and fresh approach to some of the traditional topics of philosophical theology.' Times Higher Education Supplement

£15.00, Clarendon Press, 0 19 824698 6    Paperback £6.95, 0 19 824697 8

De Universalibus

John Wyclif

Volume I

Edited by Ivan Mueller

Volume II

Translated by Anthony Kenny, with an introduction by Paul Vincent Spade

Translated and published for the first time, De Universalibus is the climax of Wyclif's work as a philosopher, and contains the seeds of his distinctive theological ideas.

Volume I, £35.00, 0 19 824680 3    Volume II, £35.00, 0 19 824681 1

NOTES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

1. Contributions and books for review should be sent to the new Editor, Professor S. R. Sutherland, King's College, Strand, London, WC2R 2LS.
2. Articles submitted to the journal should in general be between 5,000 and 10,000 words long, though articles outside these limits will be acceptable if there is some good reason for their exceptional length or brevity. Articles in two or more parts may occasionally be accepted provided each part is independently intelligible. They should normally be in English.
3. Submission of an article is taken to imply that it has not previously been published, or is not being considered for publication elsewhere.
4. Contributions should be clearly typed in double spacing, preferably on A4 paper, with a wide left-hand margin. The typescript should be prepared to accord as closely as possible with the typographical conventions of the journal.
5. Footnotes should be used sparingly: in general, to give sources of direct quotations, references to main authorities on disputable questions, and evidence relied on for a new or unusual conclusion. They should be numbered in one sequence throughout the article, and should preferably be typed in double spacing at the end of the article.
6. Contributors should keep one copy of the typescript for correcting proofs.
7. First proofs may be read and corrected by contributors provided that they can give the Editor an address through which they can be reached without delay and can guarantee to return the corrected proofs to the Editor, by airmail where necessary, within ten days of receiving them.
8. Correction should be kept to an absolute minimum. It should be confined to errors of the typist or printer unless the Editor authorises otherwise.
9. All contributions of articles receive 50 free offprints. Reviews will receive five or more offprints of their reviews.
10. If rejected manuscripts are to be returned, stamps or international coupons should be sent to cover postage, but it would normally be simpler just to retain a copy.
11. Contributors of accepted articles will be asked to assign their copyrights, on certain conditions, to Cambridge University Press, to help protect their material, particularly in the USA.
