

Religion and Hopi Life in the Twentieth Century

By John D. Loftin

"Not since Frank Waters's Book of the Hopi has there been an attempt to understand Hopi religion as religion in book-length form. An important contribution to religious studies, to anthropology, and to Native American studies generally." —Alfonso Ortiz
Loftin looks at the Hopi's timeless merging of the sacred and the profane as a student of religion, not as an anthropologist or New Age popularizer.
