History of Education Quarterly

The History of Education Quarterly publishes:

- Articles
- Documents
- Debates on important issues in the history of education
- Retrospectives
- Book reviews
- Film reviews
- Book notes

Topics span the history of education, both formal and nonformal, including the history of childhood, youth, and the family. These subjects are not limited to any time period and are universal in scope. The Quarterly is published in cooperation with the School of Education, Indiana University, with additional support from Indiana University–Northwest.

The History of Education Society

Individual subscription to the Quarterly includes membership in the History of Education Society. The Society is an international organization that seeks to encourage research in the history of education, to improve the teaching of the history of education, to promote the preservation of source materials in history of education, and to interest the educational profession and the general public in the value of the historical perspective in the making of educational policy.
