

Anglican Communion in Crisis

How Episcopal Dissidents and Their African Allies
Are Reshaping Anglicanism

MIRANDA K. HASSETT

Anglican Communion in Crisis is the first anthropological examination of the coalition between American Episcopalians and African Anglicans. Miranda Hassett argues that their partnership is a deliberate and committed movement that has tapped the power and language of globalization in an effort to move both the American Episcopal Church and the worldwide Anglican Communion to the right.

"Anglican Communion in Crisis is an important and timely book that gives insights into religion as a globalizing force and into the changing shape of religious conservatism."—William Sachs, author of The Transformation of Anglicanism
