

THE PMLA INTERNATIONAL BIBLIOGRAPHY

is now the major annual listing of publications in English and the modern languages and literatures

Compiled from a master list of nearly 1,200 periodicals, listing all the books, analyzing the Festschriften, it comprises more than 20,000 classified and cross-referenced entries. In addition to appearing in the June issue of PMLA, the bibliography, only, durably bound and printed, is also being published for MLA by the New York University Press commencing with 1964 for 1963. The bibliographies from 1921-1962 have been reprinted separately by Kraus Reprint Corporation. Will you not see to it that your library orders several sets of the MLA bibliography—for the English and foreign language seminars, for the reserve and reference rooms?

PATTERN DRILLS IN LANGUAGE TEACHING

THEORY, PRACTICE, EXAMPLES

by James Etmekjian

320 pages     $6.50N

Here is a remarkable new book to help you teach the spoken language. It's the first comprehensive text devoted to the pattern drill.

You know how difficult and time-consuming it is to construct the many extra drills needed to present a grammatical point to students, to help them learn it, and to test their knowledge.

Now James Etmekjian has lifted a great part of this burden from your shoulders. In Part II of this new book he has taken up every grammatical point in the teaching of French, recommended the kinds of drill best suited to teach it, and given examples. If you wish to supplement the drills suggested, you can turn for further ideas to Part I of the book, where all kinds of pattern drills are analyzed for content and function, with copious examples.

What has been done here in French will be readily applicable to other languages, and the teacher who acquires this book will soon wonder how he ever did without it.

JAMES ETMEKJIAN is professor of French and chairman of the Department of Foreign Languages at the University of Bridgeport, Connecticut.
