

American Society of Law, Medicine & Ethics

THE SOCIETY

The mission of the American Society of Law, Medicine & Ethics (ASLME) is to provide quality scholarship, debate, and critical thought to the community of professionals at the intersection of law, health care, policy, and ethics.

For twenty-five years, ASLME has fulfilled its mission by providing extensive opportunities for interdisciplinary education to its membership of attorneys, physicians, nurses, ethicists, educators, hospital and public administrators, risk managers, pharmacists, social workers, and students.

The great diversity of its membership makes ASLME unique. ASLME provides a dynamic forum for its members to engage in a valuable exchange of ideas from a wide range of perspectives.

PUBLICATIONS

The Journal of Law, Medicine & Ethics is a peer reviewed quarterly read by more than 5,000 health care professionals. It provides articles on such timely topics as health care quality and access, managed care, pain relief, genetics, child/maternal health, reproductive health, informed consent, assisted dying, ethics committees, HIV/AIDS, and public health. Issues review significant policy developments, health law court decisions, books.

The Winter 1996 issue examines legal and clinical issues in pain management. It contains the Pain Relief Act. The Spring 1997 issue contains papers on genetic information and parental autonomy in decision making and substituted judgment and evidentiary standards in clinical practice.

The American Journal of Law & Medicine is a law review fulfilling the need to improve communication between legal and medical professionals. Issues contain articles and case notes—on themes in health law and policy, and on the legal, ethical, and economic aspects of medical practice, research, and education—and health law court decisions and book reviews.

The Winter 1996 issue contains papers on physician incentive payments, gag clauses, insurance redlining, and TB. The Spring 1997 issue, papers on genetic predispositions and health insurance and Massachusetts's Physician Profile Act.

SUBMISSION OF MANUSCRIPTS

The editors encourage the submission of manuscripts on a wide range of medicolegal topics for publication in the JOURNAL. Acceptable subjects include health law and policy; legal, ethical, social, and economic aspects of medical practice, education, and research; health-related insurance; and other important or interesting subjects involving the relationship of the life sciences to the social sciences and humanities. The JOURNAL is interdisciplinary. Contributions from specialists in a variety of disciplines are welcomed.

ADDRESS: All materials should be sent to the Editor-in-Chief, AMERICAN JOURNAL OF LAW & MEDICINE, Editorial Offices, 765 Commonwealth Avenue, Suite 1672, Boston, Massachusetts, 02215.

GENERAL FORM: Manuscripts must be in typed form and single-sided. They must be double-spaced, with liberal margins. Manuscripts should be submitted in triplicate, i.e., an original and two photocopies. The title of the paper and the author's name and address should be given only on the covering sheet. Papers should exceed forty pages in length. If a paper is accepted, the author will be expected to provide a diskette copy of the manuscript either in MS Word 2.0, 6.0, or WordPerfect 5.1, 6.0.

ABSTRACTS: A short abstract (normally of no more than 200 words), succinctly summarizing the content of the manuscript, should accompany the manuscript on a separate sheet. If a manuscript is accepted, its abstract will be published with the paper.

REFERENCES: Footnotes to sources must be numbered consecutively and double-spaced. All footnotes should conform to A Uniform System of Citation (16th ed.), which is published and distributed by the Harvard Law Review Association, Gannett House, Cambridge, Massachusetts 02138. Nonlawyers unfamiliar with this system should follow the citation form accepted in their discipline. If such a paper is accepted, the editors of the JOURNAL will work by arrangement with the author to convert the footnotes into the proper form.

ILLUSTRATIONS: All illustrations, tables, graphs, and charts must be numbered and given suitable legends. Authors must indicate in the manuscript the appropriate positions of such graphics. Authors will be expected to provide either a suitable diskette graphics file or a camera-ready copy for each graphic.

SELECTION AND EDITING TIMETABLE: On receipt, the editors will acknowledge the submission of manuscripts. Authors will be notified of manuscript decisions within one to three months of receipt, depending on the length of the manuscript. Accepted manuscripts will be published as quickly as possible, usually within three to eight months of acceptance.

PROOF PAGES AND AUTHOR REPRINTS: Authors will be given one set of proof pages prior to publication. Proof pages will incorporate textual revisions discussed between the assigned editor and the author. Reprint order forms will accompany the proof pages. All orders must be prepaid.

RETURN OF MANUSCRIPTS: For file purposes, the JOURNAL retains one copy of all papers submitted for consideration. Copies are not returned to an author unless the author so requests in writing and supplies the JOURNAL with a return address envelope and adequate postage.
