THE BRITISH INSTITUTE OF PHILOSOPHY

Appeal for New Members and Donations

THE Council appeals to members to do all in their power to introduce new members in order to extend the benefits of the Institute and to increase its revenue.

The Institute has no endowments, and its work, which includes lecture courses and meetings for discussion in the various Centres, as well as the conduct of the JOURNAL, cannot be carried on from revenue derived solely from subscriptions of £1 is. per annum. The Council, therefore, appeals for donations, small or large, from sympathizers with the Institute's aims.

SPECIAL NOTICE

WAR EMERGENCY

On account of the need for economy both in the use of paper and in respect of costs of publication, it is proposed during the continuance of the war to publish three issues of PHILOSOPHY yearly, instead of four as hitherto. Future dates of issue will be July, November, and April.

THE Editor has been requested by Professor Glenn R. Morrow, of the University of Pennsylvania, to publish the following notice.

NOTICE

THERE has recently been published a Dictionary of Philosophy under the editorship of Dagobert D. Runes. In advance announcements of the Dictionary the names of the undersigned appeared in the lists of Associate and Contributing Editors. We objected to the publication of the work in its present form, and some of us made vigorous efforts to persuade Mr. Runes to delay publication until it had been very materially revised. These efforts were to no avail, and the work appeared with full editorial responsibility being assumed by Mr. Runes. It remains, however, a matter of professional embarrassment to us that our names were used in the advance publicity obtained for this work, and we therefore feel obliged to make a public disavowal of any editorial responsibility for it. We desire also to make it clear that we cannot always accept responsibility for our individually signed articles, since in some cases changes have been made without the approval of the author concerned.
