

Voegelin, Schelling, and the Philosophy of Historical Existence

Jerry Day

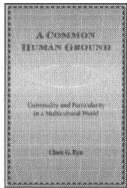

Jerry Day brings to light the need for an extensive reinterpretation of the mature philosophy of Eric Voegelin, based on Voegelin's published and unpublished appreciation for nineteenth-century German philosopher F. W. J. Schelling. 320 pages, $49.95

Plato through Homer Poetry and Philosophy in the Cosmological Dialogues

Zdravko Planinc

This new study challenges traditional ways of reading Plato by showing that his philosophy and political theory cannot be understood apart from a consideration of the literary or aesthetic features of his writing. 152 pages, $37.50

A Common Human Ground Universality and Particularity
in a Multicultural World

Claes G. Ryn

A great challenge of the twenty-first century is the danger of conflict between persons, peoples and cultures, among and within societies. In A Common Human Ground, Claes Ryn explores the nature of this problem and sets forth a theory about what is necessary for peaceful relations to be possible. 168 pages, $37.50

Edited with an Introduction
by Thomas W. Heilke and John von Heyking*

This volume of The Collected Works contains essays published by Eric Voegelin between 1929 and 1933, the period before the publication of his first book, On the Form of the American Mind, and Hitler's rise to power, as well as Voegelin's two books analyzing the explosive race issues posed by National Socialism. 264 pages, $49.95

Volume 32
The Theory of Governance and Other Miscellaneous Papers, 1921–1938

*Translated from the German by Sue Bollans, Jodi Cockerill, M. J. Hanak, Ingrid Heldt, Elisabeth von Lochner, and William Petropulos
Edited with an Introduction
by William Petropulos and Gilbert Weiss*

This volume presents a meditative-exegetic study of texts from Augustine, Descartes, and Husserl, early examples of the meditations that became central to Voegelin's later work. Other essays included in this volume such as "The Theory of Law" and "Political Science as Human Science" develop these theoretical insights and refine Voegelin's methodological tools. 544 pages, $59.95
