THE JOURNAL OF ROMAN STUDIES

POLICY STATEMENT

Scope: The Journal aims to publish papers in the full range of the field which the Roman Society was established to promote, that is 'the study of the history, archaeology, literature and art of Italy and the Roman Empire, from the earliest times down to about A.D. 700'. Although the emphasis of the Journal has been on historical themes, we would welcome more submissions on literary, archaeological and art historical topics, including those on issues of cultural and intellectual history that cut across these categories. Papers primarily concerned with the archaeology of Roman Britain should be sent in the first place to Britannia; those concerned with the archaeology of the Roman Empire at large are equally welcomed by this Journal.

Style: The Journal seeks to publish papers that make a fresh and significant contribution to the understanding of the Roman world, and have the potential to stimulate further discussion. Though papers have in recent years tended to be lengthy, the Journal would like to publish more short articles which address issues of general importance. All papers should be carefully thought through and clearly argued; this does not necessarily involve a heavy use of footnotes, but does involve clear statement of the argument and of its broader significance, and adequate signposting to the reader of the steps in the argument. They should so far as possible be accessible to the non-specialist reader, and citations in ancient languages should always be translated.

Editorial Procedure: The Journal is run by an Editorial Committee: Dr S. R. F. Price (Editor), Dr D. Feeney (Review Editor), Dr A. K. Bowman, Dr D. P. Fowler, Professor P. D. A. Garnsey, Professor M. D. Goodman, Dr D. J. Mattingly, Professor J. A. North, and Professor L. M. Whitby. Submissions are circulated at the Editor's discretion to members of the Committee and, where appropriate, to other specialist readers. In order to ensure maximum impartiality, all submissions are circulated without indication of authorship; it is helpful if submissions do not carry the author's name or institutional affiliation. The process of refereeing necessarily takes time, but authors may expect to receive a verdict within two or three months of submission. Detailed comments are normally sent only to authors of submissions which have been accepted, or which are thought suitable for resubmission. Authors are frequently invited to revise submissions in the light of such comments.

Deadlines: The Journal is scheduled to appear in November each year. Submissions arriving later than the end of January of any year may well be too late for acceptance for the current year's Journal; those intending to make late submissions are welcome to write to the Editor in advance. The optimum time for submission is between April and December of any given year for appearance in the following year's issue.

Style guidelines: Detailed guidelines on matters of presentation are available from the Editor, but recent issues of the Journal may be treated as a general guide.

Discs: Submission of the final version on disc is expected, but a clean print-out must also be supplied. Discs in Wordperfect or Word for Windows are preferred, but Word 5.0 for Macintosh and other standard languages are also acceptable.

Article submissions and all general enquiries should be addressed to the Editor, Dr S. R. F. Price, Lady Margaret Hall, Oxford OX2 6QA, UK.

Correspondence relating to reviews should be addressed to the Review Editor, Dr D. Feeney, Library of the Hellenic and Roman Societies, Senate House, Malet Street, London WC1E 7HU, UK.

Books for review should be sent to the Librarian, Hellenic and Roman Societies, Senate House, Malet Street, London WC1E 7HU, UK.
