

SPECIAL OFFER FOR NEW MEMBERS (AND OLD ONES)

While the supply lasts, the African Studies Association is offering new members a chance to obtain a file of recent back issues of the ASA Bulletin at the following rates:

The year December 1966, April 1967, September 1967
... $6.00

The year December 1967, April 1968, September 1968
... $6.00

Members may also purchase any single issue from September 1966 through September 1968 at a special price of $2.50 an issue.

Orders should be sent to the African Studies Association
622 West 113th Street
New York, New York 10025

INTERNATIONAL VISITORS

At this time, three Africans are traveling in the United States under the auspices of the State Department International Visitor Grants Program. They may be contacted through their respective programming agencies, the Council on Leaders and Specialists (CLS), 818 18th Street, N.W., Washington, D.C., telephone 202-298-7454, and the Government Affairs Institute (GAI), 1619 Massachusetts Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C., telephone 202-265-8300.

Mr. Frederic Kibassa-Maliba, National Minister of Youth Activities and Sports, in Lubumbashi, Katanga, arrived on November 29 for a 60-day visit being programmed by William G. Allen of CLS.

Mr. Ato Woobishet Marsie-Hazan, Special Assistant to the Chief of Political Affairs, Addis Ababa, will be here until January 6 on a visit programmed by Frank S. Lancetti of CLS.

Mr. Moncef Jaafar, Chief Editor of the Destourian Party French-Language Newspaper in Tunis, will be in the United States until the end of December. His program officer is Richard S. Dawson of GAI.

GRANT NEWS

Foreign Area Fellowships Awarded for 1968-69

The Social Science Research Council and American Council of Learned Societies have announced the award and acceptance of the following 34 Foreign Area Fellowships for 1968-69 in the African Studies Program:

Philip Ehrensaft, Ph.D. candidate in sociology, Columbia University, for research in Nigeria on entrepreneurial politics
Edward J. Schumacher, Ph.D. candidate in government, Columbia University, for preparation of a dissertation on bureaucracy and politics in Mali and Senegal (renewal)