The 1983 Caribbean/American Directory is the second publication of a six part series describing American business interests regionally. It is the first and only reference book to detail the purpose, activities, and key personnel for 5,000 American organizations with business interests in the Caribbean, Central America, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands.

This 600 page reference is introduced by Craig Nalen, president of the Overseas Private Investment Corporation, and the foreword is provided by Sam Segnar, president of the InterNorth Corporation.

The Caribbean/American Directory is published in association with the Caribbean/Central American Action and its executive director, Peter Johnson, who helped to establish an advisory board of business executives to assist in the development.
