

Annual Survey of Commonwealth Law

Edited by H. W. R. Wade, M.A., LL.D., D.C.L., Barrister-at-Law

This important series of annual volumes is designed to provide a comprehensive survey of all new law throughout the British Commonwealth and the United Kingdom. The material is arranged under separate headings and deals with both statute and case law. The volume covering 1964-1965 was published in 1966 and the 1965-1966 volume came out recently. Subscribers ordering both these volumes and the 1966-1967 volume (in preparation) are offered a rebate of 10s. 6d.

Fridman's Modern Tort Cases

By G. H. L. Fridman, M.A., B.C.L. (Oxon.), LL.M. (Adel.), Barrister-at-Law

This new book is intended to illustrate modern trends in the Law of Torts as developed by the courts. Each chapter contains extensive extracts from the cases—all of them post-1945—together with a critical commentary by the author, problem-questions, and a bibliography of further reading. There are detailed tables and a full index.

Cross and Wilkins' Outline of the Law of Evidence

Second Edition 1968. By Rupert Cross, M.A., D.C.L., Solicitor and Nancy Wilkins, Barrister-at-Law

A new edition of this popular students' work has long been needed, since the Criminal Evidence Act 1965 and a volume of new case law have greatly changed the Law of Evidence in recent years. A number of Articles have been partially re-written, and much of the treatment of issue estoppel and estoppel in criminal cases is new. There is detailed reference to the Criminal Justice Act 1967, and the law is stated as at mid-November 1967.

Sim's Casebook on Company Law

Second Edition 1968. By R. S. Sim, LL.B. (Hons.), Cert.Ed., Barrister-at-Law

A collection of over 300 cases which illustrate the practical application of the law relating to companies. Judgments are quoted verbatim, and the author provides helpful summaries and comments.

Street on Torts

Fourth Edition 1968. By Harry Street, LL.M., Ph.D., Solicitor

In this new edition the author has included all the latest cases such as that landmark in the law of torts, Hedley Byrne and Co. Ltd. v. Heller and Partners Ltd., as well as Wagon Mound II and Rookes v. Barnard. There is also a full index and tables of cases and statutes.

Criminal Law of East and Central Africa

J. J. R. COLLINGWOOD, B.A.(Hons.) (Cantab.)
Of Gray's Inn, Barrister-at-Law, Lecturer in Law, Law School, Lusaka

This is a discussion and explanation of the Penal Codes of Zambia, Malawi, Kenya, Uganda, Tanganyika and Zanzibar.

After an introduction, and chapters dealing with general principles and the rules of criminal responsibility and the parties to offences, the author goes on to discuss separately the main offences prescribed by the Codes.

Evidence in East Africa

H. F. MORRIS, M.A., LL.B., Ph.D.,
Lecturer in African Law, School of Oriental and African Studies, University of London
Lately African Courts Adviser, Uganda

Kenya, Tanzania and Uganda all possess a codified body of evidence law, the various Evidence Acts being closely based on the Indian Evidence Act of 1872, an Act which was, in fact, in force until very recently in several of the East African countries.

This work therefore appropriately takes the form of a commentary upon the Codes.

An Introduction to the Law of Uganda

DOUGLAS BROWN, LL.B., M.A.(Dubl.)
of Gray's Inn, Barrister-at-Law
Senior Lecturer in Law, College of Commerce, Birmingham.
and

PETER A. P. J. ALLEN
of Gray's Inn, Barrister-at-Law
Principal, Uganda Law School

This is an introductory work for those beginning the study of law in Uganda. It is particularly designed for the new law student commencing a course of study at the university, or for a professional qualification, and will enable him to familiarize himself with an outline of the scope and content of the law as a whole before examining separate subjects in depth.
