The Classical Quarterly

Published for The Classical Association

Editors

Bruce Gibson, University of Liverpool, UK

Andrew Morrison, University of Manchester, UK

The Classical Quarterly has a reputation for publishing the highest quality classical scholarship for over 100 years. It publishes research papers and short notes in the fields of language, literature, history and philosophy. Two substantial issues (around 300 pages each) of The Classical Quarterly appear each year, in May and December. Given the quality and depth of the articles published in The Classical Quarterly, any serious classical library needs to have a copy on its shelves.

Greece & Rome

Published for The Classical Association

Editors

John Taylor, Tonbridge School, UK
Vedra Izzet, University of Southampton, UK
Robert Shorrock, Eton College, UK

Greece & Rome is a journal which delivers scholarly research to a wider audience. It showcases original and informative articles on ancient history, literature, art, archaeology, religion, philosophy, and reception of the ancient world. Although its content reflects current research and its contributors include leading figures in the field, undergraduates and general readers who wish to be kept informed of current thinking will also find it engaging and accessible, as well as professional scholars in Classics and in other disciplines. With the wider audience in mind all Greek and Latin quotations are translated.

A subscription to Greece & Rome includes an annual supplement of New Surveys in the Classics.

ALFRED A. KNOPF · DOUBLEDAY · VINTAGE · ANCHOR BOOKS · NAN A. TALESE · PANTHEON · SCHOCKEN · EVERYMAN'S LIBRARY

TIM WHITMARSH BATTLING THE GODS

Atheism in the Ancient World

Atheism and doubt, far from being modern phenomena, have intrigued the human imagination for millennia. Focusing on Diagoras of Melos, Democritus, and Epicurus, Whitmarsh demonstrates how the early Christians came to use the rhetoric oppressing atheism to spread their own faith.

PANTHEON | CLOTH | 368 PAGES | $28.95

TOM HOLLAND DYNASTY

The Rise and Fall of the House of Caesar

This impeccably researched history of the reign of the first five Roman emperors—Augustus, Tiberius, Caligula, Claudius, and Nero—enlightens, entertains and argues for the continued relevance of ancient Rome.

DOUBLEDAY | CLOTH | 432 PAGES | $30.00

ALL THAT YOU'VE SEEN HERE IS GOD

New Versions of Four Greek Tragedies

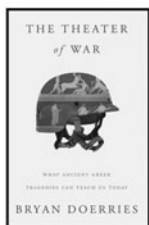

Sophocles' Ajax, Philoctetes, Women of Trachis; Aeschylus' Prometheus Bound

TRANSLATED BY BRYAN DOERRIES

"Bryan Doerries' translations . . . seriously engage both with four Greek originals by Aeschylus and Sophocles and with his own experience in performing the plays for disparate audiences who have undergone tragic suffering in person."

—Helene P. Foley, Professor of Classics, Barnard College, Columbia University

VINTAGE | PAPER | 480 PAGES | $16.95

THE THEATER OF WAR

What Ancient Greek Tragedies Can Teach Us Today

BRYAN DOERRIES

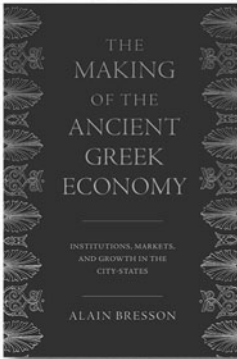

"In this riveting narrative, simply but elegantly told, Doerries movingly resurrects the inner life of a people who lived 2,500 years ago, but whose struggles evoke our own familiar and damaged present, now endowed by this wonderful book with more drama, more tragedy, more compassion, more possibility."

—Ken Burns

The Making of the Ancient Greek Economy

Institutions, Markets, and Growth in the City-States

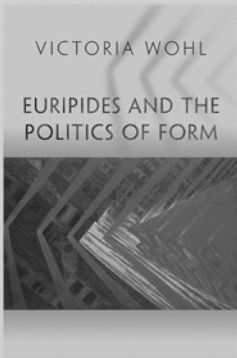

Alain Bresson

Translated by Steven Rendall

“This magisterial book provides an entirely new way of thinking about the ancient Greek economy. Alain Bresson is one of the world’s leading authorities on the subject and has contributed mightily to reconfiguring the debate about it. . . . This groundbreaking book will be read for many years to come.”

—Gary Reger, Trinity College

Cloth $45.00

Euripides and the Politics of Form

Victoria Wohl

“This book goes to the heart of thinking about tragedy and politics. Victoria Wohl links issues of tragic form directly to politics in a subtle and smart way. And the book is written with a clarity and simplicity that will make it very popular among students.”

—Simon Goldhill, University of Cambridge

From Ancient to Modern

Archaeology and Aesthetics

Edited by Jennifer Y. Chi & Pedro Azara

From Ancient to Modern offers a lens for understanding ancient objects through the perspectives and processes of both archaeology and aesthetics, and, in so doing, illuminates the multiple layers of meaning that a single object can take on—sometimes simultaneously—over the course of its existence.

OXFORD BIBLIOGRAPHIES

Celebrating 5 Years of Oxford Bibliographies in Classics

YOUR BEST RESEARCH STARTS HERE

A project that started with you

In recent years, the explosion of original research and its increasing accessibility through new technologies is a blessing for researchers, but also a tremendous challenge.

Oxford Bibliographies in Classics was developed out of market research to address this problem by offering selective annotated research paths that are written by experts and which guide research by recommending the best sources on a topic.

"Oxford Bibliographies is 'right smack on' with its tiered levels of information, running from general to highly specialized...it doesn't get any better than a respected, well-known scholar selecting the best of the best."

Steven Ozment, MCLEAN PROFESSOR OF ANCIENT & MODERN HISTORY, HARVARD UNIVERSITY

In 2009 Classics started with: 45 articles.

In 2015 Classics has: 200+ articles.

EDITOR IN CHIEF: Dee L. Clayman

THE CLASSICAL ASSOCIATION

The Classical Association has a worldwide membership and is open to all who value the study of the languages, literature, and civilisations of ancient Greece and Rome. It creates opportunities for friendly exchange and co-operation among classicists, encourages scholarship through its journals and other publications, and supports classics in schools and universities. Every year it holds an annual conference, and it sponsors branches all over the country which put on programmes of lectures and other activities.

The Classical Association has about 3,500 members. Members receive the Presidential Address once a year and a newsletter, CA News, twice a year. They may also subscribe at substantially reduced cost to the Classical Association journals Classical Quarterly, Classical Review, and Greece & Rome.

For more information and a membership application form please contact the Secretary, The Classical Association, 44 Park House, 15–23 Greenhill Crescent, Watford WD18 8PH (tel. 01923 239300, e-mail: office@classicalassociation.org). The Secretary can also give information about the reduced journal subscription rates, and about the Association's other occasional publications.

THE CLASSICAL REVIEW ONLINE

The Classical Review publishes informative reviews from leading scholars on new work covering the literatures and civilizations of ancient Greece and Rome. Publishing over 300 high-quality reviews every year, The Classical Review is an indispensable reference tool, essential for keeping abreast with current classical scholarship.
