

SHEILA KAYE-SMITH
QUARTET IN HEAVEN

CATERINA FIESCA ADORNA : THÉRÈSE MARTIN
ROSA ISABELLA DE SANTA MARIA DE FLORES
CORNELIA CONNELLY

Quartet in Heaven is a biographical study of four women who lived far apart in place and time, yet come together in Sainthood. In the lives of Catherine of Genoa, Cornelia Connelly, Rose of Lima and Thérèse of Lisieux Sheila Kaye-Smith has found a living and human basis of sanctity. "I want", she says in her Foreword, "to see these women as human beings before I see them as saints." The book ends with "Some notes on the Nature of Sanctity", in which the author tries to determine what exactly are those qualities that go to make a Saint.

“THAT THE CHURCH MAY SPREAD AND INCREASE: this is the intention for which we must offer our prayers and our labours”, says Pope Pius XII in his encyclical on the Mystical Body.

The work of the Mill Hill Fathers in Africa, India, the Far East and New Zealand, has this one aim. You can work with them for the spread of the Church by fostering vocations to the missionary priesthood.

SECULAR INSTITUTES

A symposium on the modern lay community

Secular Institutes is the name given to those communities of lay men and women which have arisen during the last twenty years and which have recently been raised to Canonical status by Pope Pius XII. The function and growth of these institutes has been a subject of considerable interest to Catholics all over the world who are seeking new forms of the eternal apostolate, and while a number of articles in various periodicals have appeared, this volume is the first of its kind to be published in this country. Included in SECULAR INSTITUTES are the following essays:

Part I: General

SECULAR INSTITUTES by E. J. B. Fry.

THEIR VOCATION AND MISSION by J. Perrin, O.P.

PRINCIPLES, OBJECTS AND METHODS OF LAY MISSIONARIES by
Y. Poncelet.

Part II: The Constitution

PROVIDA MATER ECCLESIA: 2nd February, 1947—Pius XII.

PRIMO FELICITER: 12th March, 1948—Pius XII.

CUM SANCTISSIMUS: 19th March, 1948—Sacred Congregation of Religious.

A CLARIFICATION: Congress on Religious Orders—*Osservatore
Romano*—2nd December, 1950.

A COMMENTARY ON THE APOSTOLIC CONSTITUTION by Robert
Lemoine, O.S.B.

THE GOVERNMENT OF SECULAR INSTITUTES by Edward L.
Heston, C.S.C.

Part III: Examples

CARITAS CHRISTI by J. Perrin, O.P.

THE LITTLE COMPANY OF JESUS CRUCIFIED by Hilary J.
Carpenter, O.P.

VOCATION

The second title in our series

'Religious Life'

After the outstanding success of RELIGIOUS SISTERS (18/-) we now offer VOCATION, a book of great value to all religious.

VOCATION is a translation of Le Discernment des Vocation des Religieuses, and is a result of a number of Conferences held in Paris and convened for the guidance of religious. Beginning with the historical background contributors consider how the early Church regarded the call to perfection, and the commonsense and deeply theological treatment of the obligation to follow one's vocation and the way in which a true religious vocation is to be discerned is of the greatest practical value. Also included in this volume are articles of a psychological and canonical character, of practical assistance to priests and superiors who have to decide whether a would-be postulant should be accepted.

The value of this book for all religious, whether men or women, will be obvious, and many fallacies and pitfalls will be avoided if those who think they have a vocation read these essays.

The volume includes the following contributions:

- THE CALL TO PERFECTION IN PATRISTIC TRADITION
Dom O. Rosseau
- THE OBLIGATION TO FOLLOW A VOCATION
A. Motte, O.P.
- THE RECOGNITION OF A VOCATION
A. Bonduelle, O.P.
- THE RECOGNITION OF A CONTEMPLATIVE VOCATION
François de St-Marie, O.C.D.
- AN ENQUIRY ABOUT VOCATION
- CANONICAL IMPEDIMENTS
E. Bergh, S.J.
- NEGATIVE CRITERIA OF VOCATION
Reginald Omez, O.P.
- UNCONSCIOUS ATTRACTION TO THE RELIGIOUS LIFE
A. Plé, O.P.
- THE CONTRIBUTION OF EXPERIMENTAL PSYCHOLOGY
Dr Claudio Busnelli

ST. BERNARD ON THE SONG OF SONGS

Translated and Edited by A RELIGIOUS OF C.S.M.V.

'Here, in this beautiful translation of some of these sermons, we have the finest of St Bernard's teaching. The book will form a valuable contribution to the study of medieval mystical theology, and moreover to those who in their reading turn constantly to à Kempis, Augustine, or St John of the Cross, and who have not yet read St Bernard, it will introduce another great master of the Spiritual life.

The extraordinary beauty and eloquence of St Bernard's thought is portrayed on every page (the translation itself is a masterpiece, adequately conveying the original meaning); to those who follow the teaching of the Saint will be given a new vision, a more profound understanding of the Love of Christ.'

A GOLDEN TREATISE OF MENTAL PRAYER

ST PETER OF ALCÂNTARA

A translation from the Spanish of the chief work of the saintly Franciscan Peter of Alcântara who was at one time spiritual director of the great St Teresa. It is an admirable introduction to meditation and the spiritual life. The present translation was made under the direction of the late Father Hollings, S.S.J.E., but has been out of print for many years.

THE WESTERN LITURGY AND ITS HISTORY

By THEODOR KLAUSER,

Professor of Church History in the University of Bonn

Translated from the German

By F. L. CROSS, DD., LADY MARGARET PROFESSOR OF DIVINITY, OXFORD
In his Preface, Dr Cross points to the notable increase of interest in the subject since Dom Gregory Dix's The Shape of the Liturgy, and to the great value of Dr Klauser's essay as a lucid survey of important researches over the past fifty years largely hidden in periodicals and works not ordinarily accessible.
