International Journal of Cultural Property

Published for the International Cultural Property Society

EDITOR:

ALEXANDER A. BAUER, Queens College, CUNY, USA

International Journal of Cultural Property provides a vital, international, and multidisciplinary forum for the broad spectrum of views surrounding cultural property, cultural heritage, and related issues.

Its mission is:

- to develop new ways of dealing with cultural property debates
- to be a venue for the proposal or enumeration of pragmatic policy suggestions
- to be accessible to a wide audience of professionals, academics, and lay readers

This peer-reviewed journal publishes original research papers, case notes, documents of record, chronicles, conference reports, and book reviews.

Contributions come from the wide variety of fields implicated in the debates - law, anthropology, public policy, archaeology, art history, preservation, ethics, economics, museum-, tourism-, and heritage studies - and from a variety of perspectives and interests - indigenous, Western, and non-Western; academic, professional and amateur; consumers and producers - to promote meaningful discussion of the complexities, competing values, and other concerns that form the environment within which these disputes exist.

International Theory

EDITORS:

DUNCAN SNIDAL, University of Chicago
ALEXANDER WENDT, The Ohio State University

International Theory (IT) promotes theoretical scholarship about the positive, legal, and normative aspects of world politics respectively. IT is open to theory of absolutely all varieties and from all disciplines, provided it addresses problems of politics, broadly defined and pertains to the international. IT welcomes scholarship that uses evidence from the real world to advance theoretical arguments. However, IT is intended as a forum where scholars can develop theoretical arguments in depth without an expectation of extensive empirical analysis.

IT's over-arching goal is to promote communication and engagement across theoretical and disciplinary traditions. IT puts a premium on contributors' ability to reach as broad an audience as possible, both in the questions they engage and in their accessibility to other approaches. This might be done by addressing problems that can only be understood by combining multiple disciplinary discourses, like institutional design, or practical ethics; or by addressing phenomena that have broad ramifications, like civilizing processes in world politics, or the evolution of environmental norms. IT is also open to work that remains within one scholarly tradition, although in that case authors must make clear the horizon of their arguments in relation to other theoretical approaches.

Note to Contributors

The editors welcome unsolicited article manuscripts for review, but commission all book reviews. Authors should submit their manuscripts online at <http://journals.cambridge.org/lhr>. Step-by-step instructions on the website explain the submission process. Manuscripts must be double-spaced typescript throughout, with citations prepared according to the Chicago Manual of Style, 15th ed. The Review's style guides for articles and book reviews are available on the LHR web page at <http://journals.cambridge.org/lhr>. Please use word processing. Submitted manuscripts are subject to double-blind peer review; authors should therefore identify themselves on the title page only. Accepted manuscripts are copyedited for style but not substance; authors remain responsible for citation accuracy and for all statements of fact or opinion. Law and History Review will not consider any manuscript concurrently submitted for publication elsewhere. Submission of a manuscript is understood to commit its author to publish the manuscript in Law and History Review if accepted by the editor.

American Society for Legal History

The American Society for Legal History is a nonprofit membership organization dedicated to fostering scholarship, teaching, and study concerning the law and institutions of all legal systems, both Anglo-American and international. Founded in 1956, the Society sponsors the journal and Studies in Legal History, a series of book-length monographs available to ASLH members at substantial prepublication discounts. In addition, the Society holds an annual meeting to promote scholarship and interaction among teachers, practitioners, and students interested in legal history, and publishes a semiannual newsletter reporting developments in the field. For further information concerning the Society, please write: Sally Hadden, Department of History, Western Michigan University, 4301 Friedmann Hall, Kalamazoo, MI 49008-5334, USA.

To become a member of the Society or to renew your membership please complete, print out, and mail the following form to: Cambridge University Press, Attention: Customer Services, 100 Brook Hill Drive, West Nyack, NY 10994-2133, USA; or print it out and fax it to: 845-353-4141.
