

HOSPITALITY

A Christ-like Career

Without being priests the Hospitalier Brothers of St John of God preach at home and abroad by their unselfish endeavours that the Kingdom of Heaven is for the meek and humble of heart. If by their efforts one soul is led to sanctification it is enough.

The author tells how the Communist ideal drove him beyond itself to Christ's radicalism and the universality of His Church, which He prayed should manifest in the world the 'communism' of the Trinity.

The World to Come

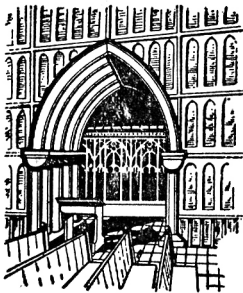

R. W. GLEASON, S.J.

12/6 net

In this study of the Church's teaching on life after death the author takes us back to the Biblical sources of Revelation which focus entirely on eternal life for man—not just a bit of him—and on 'the utter centrality of the Paschal mystery'.
