

New from Indiana

PATHS TOWARD A CLEARING

Radical Empiricism and Ethnographic Inquiry

By Michael Jackson

"... a rare gem of anthropological discourse." — Michael Herzfeld

"... a magisterial and compelling work that should not only be significant to professionals but draw students experientially into the content of other cultures." — Ivan Karp

African Systems of Thought

cloth $35.00 paper $12.95

ZULU THOUGHT-PATTERNS AND SYMBOLISM

By Axel-Ivar Berglund

"One of the most important statements of the 'inside view' of an African religious system ever made... unique in its richness and depth." — Victor Turner

This ethnographic classic describes and analyzes the ritual cycle celebrated by Zulu kinship groups as understood and interpreted by the Zulu themselves.

cloth $37.50 paper $17.50

CHRISTIAN NATIONALISM AND THE RISE OF AFRIKANER BROEDERBOND IN SOUTH AFRICA, 1918-1948

By Charles Bloomberg

Edited by Saul Dubow

A fundamental examination of one of the most important themes in South African history, the development of the beliefs and organizations which lie at the heart of Afrikanerdom—this remarkable book was the life's work of the humane and very talented Charles Bloomberg.

$35.00

Now in paperback!

THE AFRICAN FRONTIER

The Reproduction of Traditional African Societies

Edited with an Introduction by Igor Kopytoff

"This is a seminal work that will have a great impact in African ethnology, in anthropology in general, and in historical studies." — Choice

"This is not only a most interesting book, it is also unusually well integrated for a collective volume..." — African Affairs paper $12.50 cloth $35.00

At bookstores, or direct from

INDIANA UNIVERSITY PRESS

Dept. AOBM • Tenth and Morton Streets • Bloomington, Indiana 47405 • 812-855-6804

ROCKEFELLER FOUNDATION
HUMANIST-IN-RESIDENCE FELLOWSHIPS
AT THE CENTER FOR ADVANCED FEMINIST STUDIES
UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA

Two Rockefeller Humanist-in-Residence Fellowships will be awarded in 1990-91 to one postdoctoral and one senior scholar to work on a book-length original manuscript relating to the theme "Theorizing Female Diversity: The Social Construction of Difference." The Center encourages interdisciplinary proposals which contribute to the development of a feminist theory and move towards a richer understanding of the multiple dimensions of women's experience along racial, ethnic, class, and other lines.

Fellows will receive a stipend of $25,000 for post doctoral and $35,000 for senior scholar and will be in residence from September 15, 1990 to June 15, 1991. Applications are due January 15, 1990. Appointments will be made by April 1, 1990. For information contact: Center for Advanced Feminist Studies, University of Minnesota, 496 Ford Hall, 224 Church St. S.E., Minneapolis, MN 55455, (612-624-6310).

The Society for African Philosophy in North America is an independent non-profit professional society open to scholars, teachers and students from all disciplines. The society welcomes the participation of all who produce the object of our study and hopes for an interdisciplinary interaction among its members. Membership is for the calendar year and is available on the following terms:

- $30 (US funds) for regular members;
- $10 for students/retired/unemployed;
- $40 for institutions;
- $50 for sponsors.

Checks and money orders should be made out to the Society for African Philosophy, P.O. Box 338, Durham, NC 27702-0338.

The Chair for 1988-1990 is Willy Abraham, Department of Philosophy, University of California, Santa Cruz, CA.

The 1988-1990 Steering Committee includes: Anthony Appiah (Cornell), Sandra Harding (Delaware), Rhoda Howard (McMaster), Abiola Irele (Ohio State), Bogumil Jewsiewicki (Laval), Ivan Karp (Smithsonian Institution), Lucius Outlaw (Haverford), and Kwasi Wiredu (South Florida).

The Headquarters of the Society is c/o V.Y. Mudimbe, General Secretary, Romance Studies, 205 Language Building, Duke University, Durham, NC 27706. Telephone (919) 684-3706.

JOIN THE SOCIETY FOR AFRICAN PHILOSOPHY IN NORTH AMERICA

Your membership includes the following rights and privileges:

- To present papers and organize panels at meetings organized by the society
- To elect officers of the Society of African Philosophy in North America and to serve as an officer of the Society
- To receive the Bulletin of the Society and all the special issues published by the Society in Africanist and Philosophical journals.

SOCIETY FOR AFRICAN PHILOSOPHY IN NORTH AMERICA (S.A.P.I.N.A.)

Name: _____

Address: _____

Institution/Department: _____

Membership: Sponsor ($50) ___ Regular Member ($30) ___
Student/Retired/Unemployed ($10) ___ Institutions ($40) ___

SURVEY THE POLITICAL LANDSCAPE OF SOUTHERN AFRICA WITH

The Dictionary of Contemporary Politics of Southern Africa

GWYNETH WILLIAMS & BRIAN HACKLAND

Southern Africa is the focus of intense world-wide attention. But many people are confused by the complex and frequently changing politics of the region.

The DICTIONARY surveys the political landscape of Angola, Botswana, Lesotho, Malawi, Mozambique, Namibia, the Republic of South Africa, Swaziland, Tanzania, Zambia, and Zimbabwe. It also covers issues that affect the entire region.

From apartheid to the Zimbabwe Congress of Trade Unions, here are expert, clearly written entries that cover political issues in the region and its ten nations, including:

- Political parties and organizations
- Landmark political, diplomatic, and military events
- Significant political figures, from presidents and tribal chiefs to rebel leaders
- Political terminology of the region
- Acronyms, abbreviations, and non-English terms

The book provides the basic information everyone needs to understand developments within and among the nations of southern Africa. There are entries on such basic concepts as African socialism and Africanization; the complete spectrum of political organizations, from the right-wing Afrikaner Broederbond to the many liberation movements across the region; and the complicated economic ties that affect the political relation-

For more information or to order:

MACMILLAN
PUBLISHING COMPANY

866 THIRD AVENUE, NEW YORK, NY 10022
ATTENTION: DAVE HORVATH

Order Toll-Free:

Individuals: 800-323-2884 • Libraries: 800-257-5755

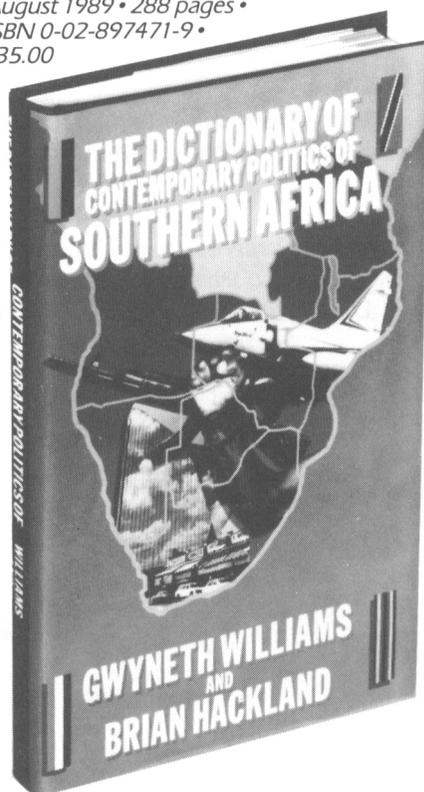

ships between the Republic of South Africa and its black neighbor "frontline States."

The entries also include many concise biographies of major political figures, past and present, who have shaped the state of southern Africa today. There are separate entries that serve as capsule introductions to the people, society, economics, and recent history of each nation. The book features cross-references throughout the text, a map of the region, an index of entries by nation, and a selected list of books for further reading.

August 1989 • 288 pages •

ISBN 0-02-897471-9 •

$35.00

AFRICAN STUDIES ASSOCIATION

The AFRICAN STUDIES ASSOCIATION was organized in 1957 as a non-profit corporation to bring together persons with a scholarly and professional interest in Africa, to provide useful services to the Africanist community, and to publish and distribute scholarly materials on Africa. Membership is open to individuals and institutions.

An Annual Meeting each autumn provides an occasion for panels, plenary sessions and discussion groups, exhibits and films. Participants from North America, Africa and Europe gather for this Meeting which is held in different regions of the US in cooperation with major universities and museums, and under the program direction of a distinguished Africanist. The annual business meeting of the members of the ASA takes place at that time. ASA members register for the Annual Meeting and purchase copies of papers presented at the Meeting at discounted rates.

Members receive three regular publications:

AFRICAN STUDIES REVIEW, published three times yearly, includes review articles, essays of scholarly and bibliographical substance, and reviews of recent books in African studies. Editor: Carol B. Thompson. Book review editor: Mark DeLancey.

ISSUE: A JOURNAL OF OPINION, with two issues annually issues, presents provocative and timely comment on critical developments in Africa and African studies. Editor: Harvey Glickman.

ASA NEWS, a quarterly newsletter, reports current and future activities of the Association, bibliographical and news notes, employment notices, significant correspondence and announcements of concern to the world community of Africanists. Editor: Edna G. Bay.

MEMBERSHIP DUES (1990):

Institutions:

- $75 domestic and surface overseas;
- $55 surface overseas for institutions on the African continent;
- $90 overseas airmail to Europe or Africa

Individuals:

- $45 members with incomes over $30,000;
- $35 members with incomes between $15,000 and $30,000;
- $15 members with incomes less than $15,000;
- $17.50 second member in household where first pays regular dues;
- $80 optional air mail to Europe or Africa

ADDRESS:

African Studies Association
Credit Union Building
Emory University
Atlanta, GA 30322

AFRICAN STUDIES ASSOCIATION

Credit Union Building
Emory University
Atlanta, Georgia 30322

Address Correction Requested

Non-Profit
U.S. Postage
PAID
Ann Arbor, Mich.
Permit No. 195