The French Stage & Playhouse in the Seventeenth Century

by

T. E. LAWRENSON

The second, revised and up-dated edition of The French Stage in the XVIIth Century, which was a landmark in its subject, is now in the press and will be available in early Spring 1986, from the AMS Press, New York.

Professor Tom Lawrenson, who was Secretary General of the International Federation for Theatre Research from 1973 until his death in 1982, completed the manuscript himself. It is now being offered as a memorial volume which includes an appreciation of the author, a bibliography of his published work, lists of productions which he directed and of roles which he played.

Subscriptions at the pre-publication price of £24.00 can still be accepted up to 31 December 1985.

(After publication the price will be $47.50) Cheques should be made payable to the Lawrenson Memorial Fund A/C and sent to Dr L. M. Newman, University of Lancaster Library, Lancaster LA1 4YH, Great Britain.

For America and Canada $30.00, payable to AMS Press, should be sent to Dr W. B. Long, AMS Press, 56 East 13th Street, New York, N.Y. 10003, USA.

The Oxford Shakespeare

General Editor: Stanley Wells

New and authoritative versions of Shakespeare's plays in which the early printings have been scrupulously re-examined and interpreted on freshly considered principles.

Shakespeare

Germaine Greer

'Shakespeare was and is a popular artist.' This is the theme of Germaine Greer's exciting new introduction to Shakespeare's work in the Past Masters series. She also explores why, several centuries after his death, Shakespeare is still central to English cultural life.

£12.50 hardback; £3.95 paperback

Shakespeare

A Writer's Progress

Philip Edwards

Professor Edwards stresses the continuity and inter-relationship of Shakespeare's work in a new study that encourages the reader to reach his or her own personal realization of Shakespeare's unique importance as a writer.

THEATRE RESEARCH / RECHERCHES THEATRALES

The International Federation published the journal Theatre Research/Recherches Théâtrales from 1959 to 1975 when it was succeeded by Theatre Research International. During these years many important articles of original research were published covering the whole field of theatre history from the earliest times, and particularly Shakespeare and the Elizabethan period, to more recent figures such as Strindberg, Craig and Beckett. There have been special issues on the themes of Opera, the Playwright as Director, and Reinhardt; a check-list of world theatre on records; and reports on International Conferences and Symposia of the I.F.T.R.

In all 14 volumes were published in 36 issues including a complete index. Most back issues are still available.

University and institutional libraries, and especially those who have subscribed to the new journal Theatre Research International, are recommended to take this opportunity of completing their holding of the earlier issues of this publication, while copies last.

Price: per issue £2 ($3); per volume £4 ($6) plus postage

A few complete runs of the 14 volumes (with two issues in facsimile) are available at £50 ($75). Postage extra.
