

ANNOUNCEMENTS

INTERNATIONAL SUMMER COURSES IN LEGAL ASPECTS OF EUROPEAN INTEGRATION

August 1982 – at the Europa Institute of the University of Amsterdam

16 – 28 August 1982:

General Courses: the institutional framework, judicial remedies and the substantive Community Law of the European Communities. For lawyers, legal advisors and civil servants, who are regularly confronted with problems raised by the EC Treaties.

23 – 28 August 1982:

Specialized Follow-Up Courses: keeping up to date with recent developments in the Common Market, Judicial remedies, anti-trust/Competition law, industrial property, company law, state-aid, external relations.

For full information, write to Europa Institute, P.O. Box 19770, 1000 GT Amsterdam, the Netherlands.

PAUL GUGGENHEIM FOUNDATION

PAUL GUGGENHEIM PRIZE

On 19 December 1981, the Paul Guggenheim Prize was awarded to M. Antoine Martin for his work entitled “L’Estoppel en droit international public, précédé d’un aperçu de la théorie de l’Estoppel en droit anglais”, and to M. Peter Haggemacher for his study “Grotius et la doctrine de la guerre juste”.

The Board of the Paul Guggenheim Foundation decided to award the next Prize in 1983.

Works must be submitted before 31 December 1982 to the Paul Guggenheim Foundation, The Graduate Institute of International Studies, 132, rue de Lausanne, 1202 Geneva (Switzerland). The Rules pertaining to the Prize may be obtained at the same address.