Swift to Wrath

Lynching in Global Historical Perspective
Edited by William D. Carrigan and Christopher Waldrep

$39.50 | CLOTH

The nine essays collected here look at lynching in the context of world history, requiring scholars to rethink the history of collective violence altogether.

Religious Freedom

Jefferson's Legacy, America's Creed
John Ragosta

$39.50 | CLOTH | JEFFERSONIAN AMERICA

In Religious Freedom, the historian and lawyer John Ragosta offers a vigorous defense of Jefferson's support for a strict separation of church and state.

A Storm over This Court

Law, Politics, and Supreme Court Decision Making in Brown v. Board of Education

Jeffrey D. Hockett

$39.50 | CLOTH | CONSTITUTIONALISM AND DEMOCRACY

Offering a unique interpretation of the basis of Brown v. Board of Education, Jeffrey Hockett critiques an array of theories that have arisen to explain the iconic decision and Supreme Court decision making generally.

Justice Brennan

Liberal Champion

Seth Stern and Stephen Wermiel

“Stern and Wermiel fully and effectively explore the astonishing record of Brennan’s thirty-four years on the Supreme Court. He shaped much of the constitutional law under which we live [and] had a liberal vision that will outlast the passions of the moment. He was steadfast in that vision, fearless in the face of controversy.”
—Anthony Lewis, New York Review of Books

“Scrupulously honest, consistently fair-minded, and long-awaited, Justice Brennan is a supremely impressive and definitive work that will long be prized as perhaps the best judicial biography ever written.”—David J. Garrow, Washington Post Book World

688 pages, 28 photos, Paper $24.95

Father, Son, and Constitution

How Justice Tom Clark and Attorney General Ramsey Clark Shaped American Democracy

Alexander Wohl

“The compelling story of Tom and Ramsey Clark has been hiding in plain sight for decades. It took Alex Wohl’s prodigious research to unearth it and show how, as major actors in some of the great legal struggles of twentieth century America, father and son became civil libertarians almost in spite of themselves.”
—Linda Greenhouse, author of Becoming Justice Blackmun

“A well-written, finely-crafted, and fascinating account of the lives and careers of these two men, who were linked together by blood and history. And it is a notable contribution to the political, legal, and social history of our times.”—Lawrence M. Friedman, author of A History of American Law

448 pages, 29 photos, Cloth $39.95

Landmark Law Cases and American Society

The Tokyo Rose Case

Treason on Trial

Yasuhide Kawashima

“Kawashima’s lucid study of the grossly improper 1949 San Francisco treason trial, conviction, and imprisonment of the American Nisei Iva Toguri D’Aquino, the mythical ‘Tokyo Rose,’ is an important addition to the literature of the case. Its chief contributions include an exploration of the kind of life she and other American Nisei trapped in wartime Japan endured, and the most thorough account of her trial. It is a disgraceful chapter in the annals of American federal justice.”—Roger Daniels, author of Prisoners without Trial: Japanese Americans in World War II

200 pages, Cloth $34.95, Paper $17.95

NEW IN PAPERBACK

Before Earth Day

The Origins of American Environmental Law, 1945–1970

Karl Boyd Brooks

“An enthusiastic, generous, inclusive, daring, and insightful exploration of that long-rumored beast described as ‘environmental law.’ Beautifully written and wonderfully revealing.”—William H. Rodgers, Jr., author of Treatise on Environmental Law

286 pages, 19 illustrations, Paper $24.95

The Cambridge Law Journal

Editor

John Bell University of Cambridge, UK

The Cambridge Law Journal publishes articles on all aspects of law. Special emphasis is placed on contemporary developments, but the journal's range includes jurisprudence and legal history. An important feature of the journal is the Case and Comment section, in which members of the Cambridge Law Faculty and other distinguished contributors analyse recent judicial decisions, new legislation and current law reform proposals. The articles and case notes are designed to have the widest appeal to those interested in the law – whether as practitioners, students, teachers, judges or administrators – and to provide an opportunity for them to keep abreast of new ideas and the progress of legal reform. Each issue also contains an extensive section of book reviews.

Modern Intellectual History

Editors

Charles Capper, Charles Capper

Duncan Kelly, University of Cambridge, UK

Anthony J. LaVopa, North Carolina State University, USA

Samuel Moyn, Columbia University, USA

This important journal serves as a focal point and forum for scholarship on intellectual and cultural history from the mid-seventeenth century to the present, with primary attention to Europe and the Americas and to transnational developments that encompass the non-West. MIH enquires into this era's intellectual discourses and texts, their contextual origins and reception, and the recovery of their historical meanings. The journal encompasses various forms of intellectual and cultural history, including political thought and culture, philosophy, religion, literature and literary criticism, social sciences, natural sciences, visual arts and aesthetic theory, communications, law, economic thought, social and cultural theory, psychology, anthropology, music and the history of the book.

American Society for Legal History

The American Society for Legal History is a nonprofit membership organization dedicated to fostering scholarship, teaching, and study concerning the law and institutions of all legal systems, both Anglo-American and international. Founded in 1956, the Society sponsors Law and History Review and Studies in Legal History, a series of book-length monographs available to ASLH members at substantial discounts. In addition, the Society holds an annual meeting to promote scholarship and interaction among scholars, practitioners, and students interested in legal history, and maintains a website (<http://www.aslh.net>) reporting developments in the field. For further information concerning the Society, please write: Sally Hadden, Department of History, Western Michigan University, 4301 Friedmann Hall, Kalamazoo, MI 49008-5334, USA.

To become a member of the Society or to renew your membership please complete, print out, and mail the following form to: Cambridge University Press, Attention: Customer Services, 100 Brook Hill Drive, West Nyack, NY 10994-2133, USA; or print it out and fax it to: 845-353-4141.
