The object of the American Society of International Law is to foster the study of international law and promote the establishment of international relations on the basis of law and justice. For this purpose it will cooperate with other societies in this and other countries having the same object.

THE AMERICAN JOURNAL OF INTERNATIONAL LAW is supplied to all members of the Society without extra charge, as the membership fee of five dollars per annum includes the right to all issues of the Journal published during the year for which the dues are paid. (Members residing in foreign countries outside the domestic postal zone pay one dollar extra per annum for foreign postage; Canada fifty cents extra.)

The annual subscription to non-members of the Society is five dollars per annum (plus the above mentioned sums for foreign postage) and should be placed with the AMERICAN SOCIETY OF INTERNATIONAL LAW, 700 Jackson Place, N. W., Washington, D. C.

Single copies of the Journal will be supplied at $1.50 per copy.

Applications for membership in the Society, correspondence with reference to the Journal, and books for review should be sent to George A. Finch, Secretary and Managing Editor, 700 Jackson Place, N. W., Washington, D. C.
