Legal Theory

Editors

Matthew D. Adler, University of Pennsylvania Law School, USA

Larry Alexander, University of San Diego Law School, USA

David O. Brink, University of California, San Diego, USA

Scott J. Shapiro, Yale Law School, USA

Legal Theory draws contributions not only from academic law, but from a wide range of related disciplines in the humanities and social sciences, including philosophy, political science, economics, history and sociology. Topics covered fall mainly into the broad categories of analytical and normative jurisprudence, doctrinal theory, policy analyses of legal doctrines and critical theories of law.

Instructions for contributors

The International Journal of Law in Context is the companion journal to the Law in Context book series. It is a forum for interdisciplinary legal studies and offers intellectual space for ground-breaking critical research. It publishes contextual work about law and its relationship with other disciplines including but not limited to science, literature, humanities, philosophy, sociology, psychology, ethics, history and geography. The journal explores and expands the boundaries of law and legal studies.

Full instructions for contributors are available at: journals.cambridge.org/ijc

Contributors are responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce any materials, including photographs and illustrations, for which they do not hold copyright and for ensuring that the appropriate acknowledgements are included in the manuscript.

All contributions in the journal are peer-reviewed. Upon acceptance of a paper, the authors will be asked to assign copyright to Cambridge University Press.

'Law in Other Contexts' articles should be sent to:
Professor David Nelken, University of Macerata, Via Audinot
35, Bologna 40134, Italy

Books for review should be sent to:
Helen Reece, Department of Law, London School of Economics, Houghton Street, London WC2A 2AE UK
Email h.hreece@lse.ac.uk

Manuscript preparation

- Articles should be written in English. They should not have been published already, nor should they be under consideration elsewhere.
- Each article should be accompanied by the following information on a separate sheet
 - the title of the article
 - the author's name, affiliation and institutional address, together with an email address, and telephone and fax numbers
 - an abstract of 100–150 words
 - articles should be between 6,000 and 20,000 words, including notes.

- Articles must be word processed and double-spaced. A4 or American Quarts paper should be used. Three copies should be submitted.

- Any articles containing material subject to copyright restrictions other than those owned or controlled by the contributor must be accompanied by appropriate permissions from the relevant copyright holder(s).

- For referencing use the Harvard-style system. Surname and date should be cited in the text, with a page reference where relevant, together with an alphabetically ordered end list. Use the following style in the Reference List

Dworkin, Ronald (2000) Sovereign Virtue. Cambridge, Mass: Harvard University Press

Daniels, Cynthia R. (1999) 'Fathers, Mothers and Fetal Harm: Rethinking Gender Difference and Reproductive Responsibility' in Lynn M. Morgan and Meredith W. Michaels (eds) Fetal Subjects, Feminist Positions. Philadelphia: University of Pennsylvania Press, 83–98

Macaulay, Stewart (2003) 'The Real and the Paper Deal: Empirical Pictures of Relationships, Complexity and the Urge for Transplant Rules', Modern Law Review 66: 44–79

Citations in new editions of previously published works should include the date of the original edition and the new edition in the text and in the reference list e.g. Mill (1859/1989)

- Footnotes should be used rather than end notes. Each time a case is referred to in the text, the case report reference should be set out in the footnote. One report reference is sufficient. References to UK statutes should be made as follows

Matrimonial Causes Act 1973, s.25

Statutory instruments should be referred to by name and date (i.e. short title) followed by the number e.g. Local Authorities (Smallholdings) Order 1974, SI 1974/396

- Tables should be presented on separate sheets at the end of the article and should have short descriptive titles. Figures should be clearly numbered and should have explanatory captions. The author must indicate where Tables and Figures should be placed in the text.

Proofs

Only essential typographical or factual errors may be changed at proof stage. Resist the temptation to revise or add to the text. The publisher reserves the right to charge authors for correction of non-typographical errors.

Offprints

No paper offprints are provided, but the corresponding author will be sent the pdf of the published article. Print offprints may be purchased at extra cost at proof stage.
