ST. BERNARD ON THE CHRISTIAN YEAR

Translated and Edited by A RELIGIOUS OF C.S.M.V.

Sermons and discourses newly translated from the original Latin version of St Bernard's Sermones De Tempore and Sermones De Festis.

This compendium from the Christian classics contains the heart of St Bernard's teaching. 10s. 6d.

THE MEDITATIONS OF WILLIAM of St. THIERRY

Translated and Edited by A RELIGIOUS OF C.S.M.V.

"This translation has the qualities which we should expect, and the Introduction is good. From it we learn that the author, a Flemish nobleman, was born in Liège in, or about, 1085. He became a friend of St Bernard and Abbot of St Thierry. This book is a valued addition to devotional literature in English'.
—Church Quarterly Review

"The doctrinal character of the Meditations makes it an exceptionally good book for a beginner. There are not many books available of which this can be said. As M. Etienne Gilson has said of this book, "William has everything".

SPIRITUAL GUIDANCE

By FATHER SHIRLEY HUGHSON, O.H.C.

"Good books on the spiritual life are rare—which is all the more reason for welcoming this volume by Father Hughson. The writer has studied spiritual direction in the works of the masters from the Fourth Century onwards, and here we have the fruits of his labours. The opening chapters deal most adequately with the whole question of the spiritual life, whilst succeeding chapters centre around the Holy Eucharist and prayer in their relation to the spirit within man. This book will go far to meet the needs of those who, in the "humdrum" of life, are looking for a source of spiritual refreshment and encouragement. Invaluable for priest and layman alike.'

ONE AND HOLY

By KARL ADAM

7/6 net

'Dr Adam discusses the problem of Christian unity on the basis of a searching and honest examination of the root causes of the Reformation, from which he proceeds to discuss the possibility of reunion. It goes without saying that the only reunion he envisages is a return of the Protestant communions to allegiance to Rome. But he presents this possibility with such deference, such innate charity and wisdom, that once again the severity of the blow which struck Christendom with the division at the Reformation must be felt by any sensitive reader.'
