Books and Journals from
Cambridge University Press

The Cambridge Medicine programme focuses its book publishing in a defined set of core clinical areas with our great strength in the clinical brain sciences. Other specialties of significant focus include reproductive medicine/obstetrics and gynaecology, anaesthesia and critical care, emergency medicine and pathology.

Our journals programme covers a broad spectrum of medical disciplines including emergency and disaster medicine, epidemiology and infectious diseases, biomedical science, genetics, nutrition, mental health and psychiatry, and neuroscience.

We partner with many learned societies including The Society for Healthcare Epidemiology of America, and the Neuroscience Education Institute, and the Royal College of Obstetricians and Gynaecologists.

For all other use, permission should be sought from Cambridge or the American Branch of Cambridge University Press.

Claims for missing issues can only be considered if made immediately after receipt of the subsequent issue.

Advertising. Details of advertising in Parasitology may be obtained from the publisher.

Online submission. Authors are encouraged to submit their manuscripts online. Go to <http://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/par/> to open an author's account for Parasitology. Manuscript Central is helping to improve the speed of the publication process for the journal.

Front Cover illustration: The functional mechanism of anti-merozoite antibodies. Antibodies to merozoite surface proteins can mediate several effector mechanisms, including complement fixation due to cytophillic antibodies that result in merozoite lysis of C3b opsonization; inhibition of merozoite invasion into the RBC; phagocytosis of IgG-opsonized merozoites; production of reactive oxygen species (ROS) or Nitric oxide (NO) in response to opsonized parasites and antibody dependent cellular inhibition (ADCI) triggered by IgG-opsonized merozoites.
