Augustine the Bishop

F. van der MEER

Illustrated, 90/- net

Augustine the Bishop is a translation of what has long been accepted as the definitive history of Augustine of Hippo's bishopric and the world in which he exercised it. The author, well known on the Continent, shows a thorough grasp of Patristic and archaeological sources.

The Conscience of Israel

BRUCE VAWTER, C.M.

22/6 net

A companion to the successful Path Through Genesis, the author here deals with the great prophets up until the exile.

The Layman and his Conscience

RONALD KNOX

18/- net

This is the last of the books prepared by Mgr Knox before he died. He intended it as a companion to the popular Retreat for Lay People and in it develops many of the ideas found in the earlier work.

The Methods and Experience of Psychoanalysis

ALBERT GÖRRES

13/6 net

This book is a psychologist's evaluation of classical Freudian theory and practice in the context of the science of psychology in the present day.

Sanctified in Truth

LEO TRESE

8/6 net

For most Christians the ordinary temptations and problems of every day are well enough known but many of us have a great curiosity about the difficulties encountered by priests. Leo Trese is writing straightforwardly about the priest's ordinary religious problems and the difficulties he encounters in trying to live a Christian life.

Children and their Religion

EVE LEWIS

7/- net

How do children really react to religious ideas? A child's psychologist here tries to give an intelligent guide to the way such ideas may be presented.

SPONSA REGIS

A SPIRITUAL REVIEW FOR SISTERS

In the changing circumstances of religious life, Sisters are more anxious than ever to find spiritual guidance that will keep them abreast of new thought and developments and provide practical suggestions for making their life more fruitful.

In the current volume of SPONSA REGIS they will find:

THOMAS MERTON writing on the basic notions of Christian perfection;

KARL RAHNER, S.J., discussing the theory and practice of poverty in our day;

GERMAIN LESAGE, O.M.I., considering the relationship between psychological maturity and religious perfection.

Other contributors include Dom Bede Griffiths, O.S.B., Sister Mary Emil, I.H.M., Father Columban Browning, C.P., Father James Carmody, S.J., Sister Joan Bland, S.N.D., and many others.

Now in its thirty-third year, SPONSA REGIS continues to be the only American magazine published exclusively for Sisters. Its topics include Sacred Scripture, liturgy, asceticism, spiritual life, and the apostolate. Its well-qualified authors assure the reader of reliable guidance and challenging encouragement.
