

HEGEL BULLETIN

Editorial Policy

The Hegel Bulletin is a leading English language journal for anyone interested in Hegel's thought, its context, legacy and contemporary relevance. Our aim is to promote high quality contributions in the field of Hegel studies. The field is broadly construed to include all aspects of Hegel's thought, and its relation and relevance to the history of philosophy; Hegelian contributions to all aspects of current philosophical enquiry, including the modern European and analytic philosophical traditions; German Idealism, British Idealism, Marx and Marxism, Critical Theory, American Pragmatism; studies in the reception history of Hegel and German Idealism.

Articles: please send articles to one of the editors, Dr Christoph Schuringa, New College of the Humanities 19 Bedford Square, London WC1B 3HH, United Kingdom. christoph.schuringa@nchlondon.ac.uk, and Professor Alison Stone, Dept. of Politics, Philosophy and Religion Lancaster University, LA1 4YL, United Kingdom. a.stone@lancaster.ac.uk The Bulletin is a peer-reviewed journal and accepts articles in English, however in line with our international strategy we would consider translated articles written originally in other languages. Articles sent for consideration must be anonymised for double-blind review, and a copy provided electronically with a separate title page including an abstract. Guidelines for prospective contributors are posted in our website: <http://www.hegel-society.org.uk>

Books: please send books for review to the reviews editor, Dr Paul Giladi, Department of History, Politics, and Philosophy, Manchester Metropolitan University, Geoffrey Manton Building, 4 Rosamond Street West, Manchester M15 6LL, United Kingdom, p.giladi@mmu.ac.uk

Subscriptions and Memberships: The Bulletin appears twice yearly (Spring/Summer and Autumn/Winter). New subscribers will receive as their first issue(s) the issue(s) published in the calendar year in which they join. Subscription and membership rates are advertised on our website.
